"HOW TO WRITE AND SELL GAY MEN'S EROTICA"

LAVENDER BLUE

How to Write and Sell Gay Men's Erotica

> by Lars Eighner

with or intrafts non by John Preston

Over the past 20 plus years of free lance writing I have been aware of a steady stream of books giving advice to hopeful writers. From Writer's Digest and Writer's Market these range through hundreds of titles on how to write mysteries, non-fiction, technical pieces, etc. There are even books on how to write porn, usually with a straight emphasis. As a book addict I have purchased and skimmed many of these, and even read a few of them. I don't know that any of them really helped.

When I saw Lars Eighner's Lavender Blue, How to Write and Sell Gay Men's Erotica listed in the book dealer's catalog I figured I should add another title to this collection. When it arrived it joined the leaning tower of literature that resides permanently next to my chair at home and I eventually worked my way down to it. I started it with no real enthusiasm but with the same sense of duty that compelled me to attempt to read the anatomy textbook sections I had assigned my students in Comparative Anatomy class.

Less than a page into John Preston's introduction I was hooked. John's account of one painful morning in the life of a hungover associate editor was superb. Not just because it was great reading but because I could closely identify and knew that his message was RIGHT ON! Before I finished the introduction I knew that I would be recommending the book to potential writers, I just hoped that Eighner's book lived up to Preston's Introduction.

It did. Preston says, "Lavender Blue is one of those acts of love that gay men commit for one another. Another person might have been willing to write a short essay on hot writing and then tell you to go and read someone else's book on the craft. But not Eighner." Lars Eighner has not only written the best book on writing and selling gay men's erotica, he has written one of the best books on free lance writing I have seen.

The subtitle, "HOW TO WRITE AND SELL GAY MEN'S EROTICA" is important. Chapters one through nine are on the business of writing erotica, about researching the market, preparing the manuscript, and selling the finished product. Chapters ten through eighteen are on the business of writing erotica, on composing the work of gay erotic fiction. Both sections are well done and useful. The information is clearly presented and it is sound information.

I can't say that I agree with absolutely everything. I think, for example, that there are several completely valid reasons for using a pseudonym. And, though Eighner makes it clear that the going rate for unsolicited fiction is love the example he gives on how to prepare a bill to the publisher (for the sale first serial rights to the short story "Rodentrump" to "Hot Gerbil Magazine" for $3501 quotes a selling price much higher than I am aware of anyone paying. However, most of the book is exceedingly good for the beginning freelancer, and contains much that will be of interest to the experienced contributor as well. I wish I had had it 10 years ago.

John Preston's intro alone is worth the $9.95 price. It is a small investment that should greatly improve your chances of seeing a return on your writing time and energy. Published by Caliente Press, PO Box 50421, Austin TX 78763, Lavender Blue may be ordered directly from the publisher. Since I am going to be recommending it to everyone who asks us for writer's guidelines it will also be available from the Sandmutopia Supply Co. Include $3.5&H. California residents include 6.5% sales tax with your order.

CAUTION: Every decision a person makes, including the decision to get out of bed in the morning, has some degree of risk associated with it. We strongly believe that each competent adult must set for themselves the level of risk he or she is willing to accept. Some avoid crossing streets in heavy traffic—others stunt-ride motorcycles without a helmet. However, to intelligently confront and accept risk, a person must understand the dangers.

While Drummer hopes to educate its readers on a wide variety of topics, its main purpose is to entertain! Works of fiction presented in this magazine are just that—fiction! They are not in any way intended to suggest or describe activities that anyone should—or often could-actually do. They are meant for entertainment only. In other than fictional pieces, we will emphasize safe sex with respect to contagious diseases and safe and sane behavior with respect to all activities and will try to point out all activities which deviate from generally recognized safe-sex and sate-and-sane play activities. SAFE S/M

Thank you for the excellent editorial in the current issue of Drummer on our AIDS Safe S/M brochure. From the day issue 124 hit the stands, we have been receiving requests for copies from all across the country. We truly appreciate your enabling us to provide this valuable information to a much wider audience than our limited resources would allow.

Also, for your records please note that our address has changed to 77401/2 Santa Monica Boulevard, West Hollywood, CA 90046. Since the time of printing the brochure, we received some funds from the city of West Hollywood for our male street hustler program which resulted in a move to our new West Hollywood address.

Again, thank you for the editorial and for promoting a positive attitude toward safe behavior through your magazine.

DRAWN TO THE MASTERS

I'm writing to express my pleasure at the return of Aaron Travis to your pages in the multi-part "Beirut." I had noted sadly the decline in quality of your fiction over these past several years. Hopefully you'll run other quality stories by Mr. Travis, Lars Eighner, Mason Powell, and others who have perfected their art and craft. They are true masters.

DROOLING FOR DADDIES

I occasionally get copies of your magazine, which usually has interesting and wide ranging topics/themes. When are you going to have an issue devoted to athletes, particularly built Daddy jocks? Last year's Olympics had me drooling over some beauties-blacks and whites.

A well-built, hung Daddy sporting a beard and strutting his stuff in running tights or lycra gear is a turn-on. And what about Dads getting if off in football gear studs in spandex and socks. Is it possible to have a special "jock" edition to follow on from your fetish editions?

—RT / Victoria, Australia

Daddies will be featured again in issue 129 and Athletes in issue 137. As for putting the two together, we'll see what we can do.

A GOOD CHUCKLE

I noticed the issue number of my most recent Drummer and realized how long it has been since you took over the magazine, and how long I've been putting off writing to tell you how much I enjoy what you have done with Drummer.

There is always going to be things some people don't like, but the fact that you try to use new ideas and are not afraid to change things, help to keep it interesting. I have enjoyed especially the comments you make in answer to some of the letters you get each month.

I usually get a good chuckle from it. before moving on to the stories and articles.

The club information you provide is helpful, and the club mailing lists have been useful on more than one occasion. If you would, include our address the next time you do an update. (Done!)

Once again, thanks for your efforts in producing Drummer.

MEANWHILE BACK AT THE RANCH

I am very interested in scenes involving men riding men. I understand that there is, or at least was, a group called "Hangin" Tree Ranch" which was into this scene. They provided the cover for your "Drummer Rides Again!" magazine of 1979.

I recently saw an address for them in Monterey, but the letter was returned as undeliverable.

I would appreciate any information about them that you could give me (like an address,) or you can pass my address on to them.

-MRC / Rocklin, CA

Sorry—Hanging Tree has been out of business for several years, and I have also been unsuccessful in tracking down anyone connected with it.

OPEN SEASON ON BEARS

In issue #107 a man had written you a letter entitled "Just Looking." In it he asked if you would do a spread on "studs with big bellies—real Daddy types." I would like to know if you have done this because I too have a fetish for big-gutted types, bikers, pro-wrestlers.

I have been traveling a lot in the last year and a half and have unfortunately missed some of your issues. However, if I have missed the "Big Boys" PLEASE let me know how I can get my hands on your "Big Boy" issues.

-IRL / Denver, CO

A couple issues you might want to get your hands on are #119, Bears and Mountain Men, and #122, Cigars (check out the Tough Customers—woof!) Back issues are available from Desmodus, Inc., with an order-form in each issue of Drummer.

In this issue we introduce the art of W. Bruce Lee, with his illustration for "Big Red," and we hope to publish many more of his big-bellied-bearded-biker-bear drawings.

More is on the way: the official Drummer Staff Bear-Hunter is untiring in his efforts and can occasionally be persuaded to share his bears.

PASS THE LAMB'S BLOOD

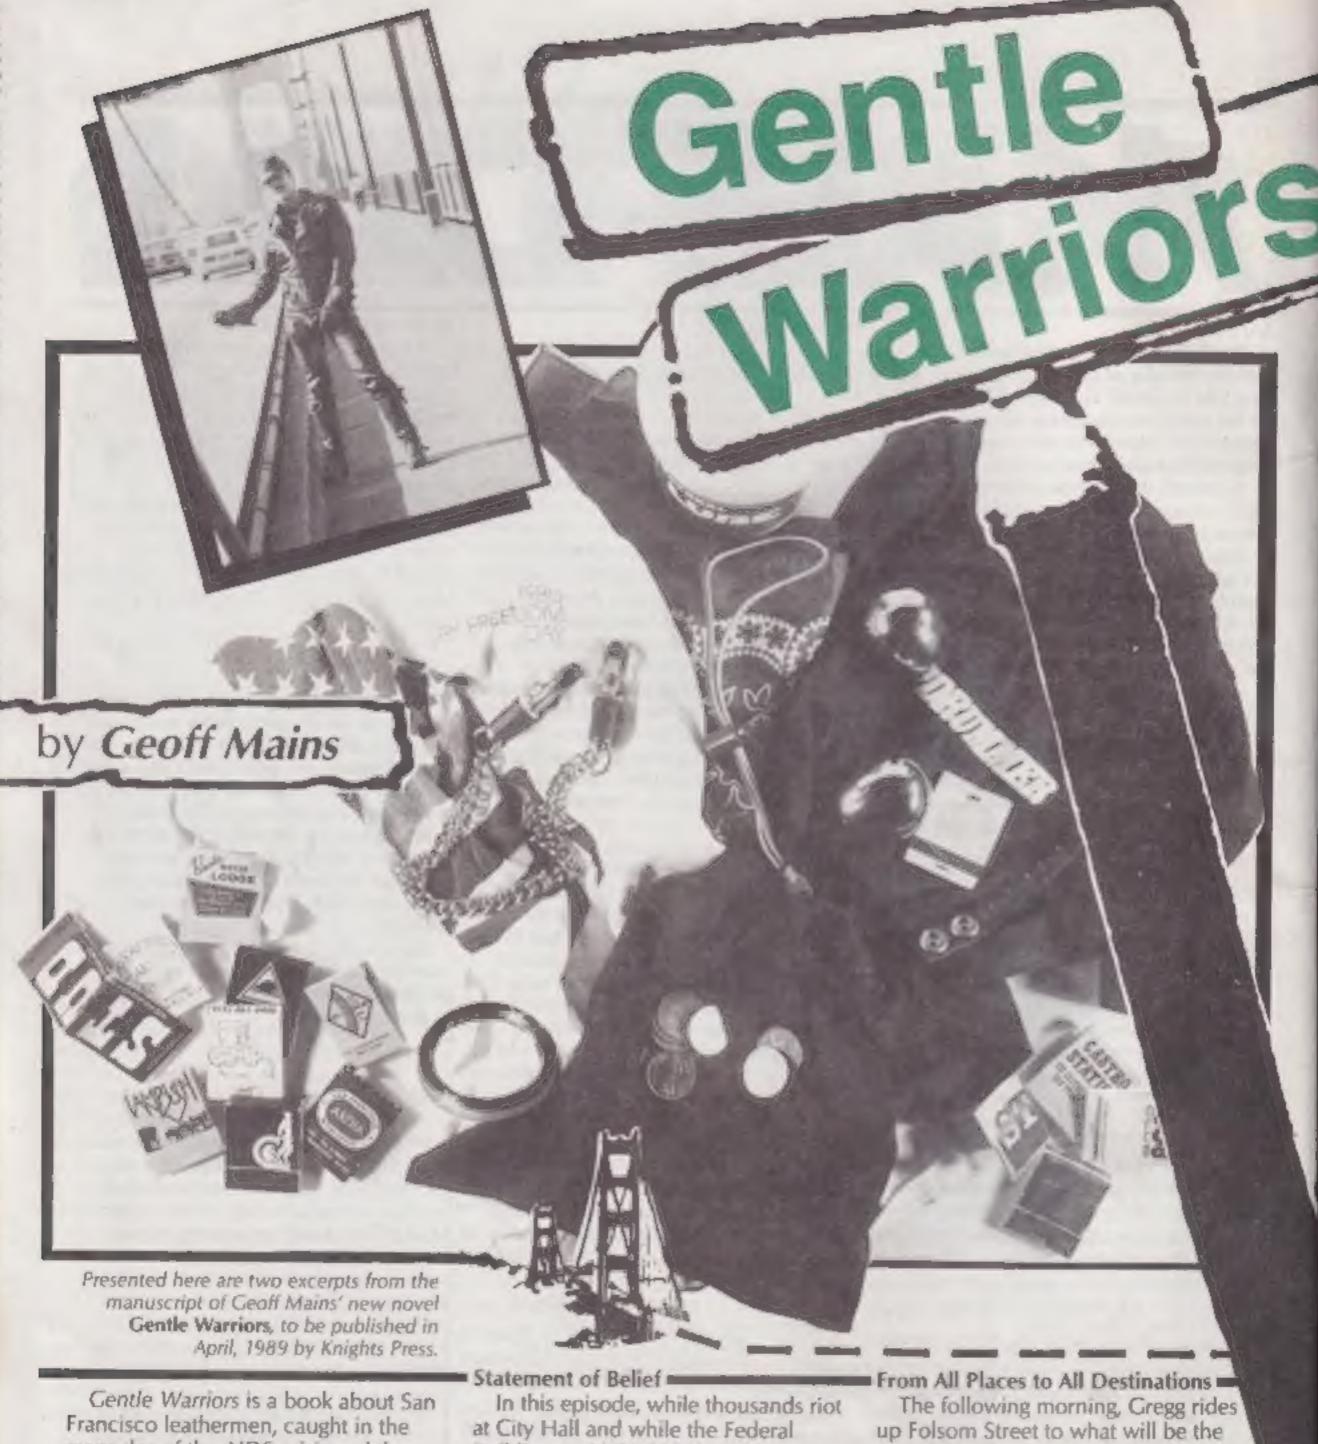

I have just recently heard the mass murderer Bundy, who was executed in Florida, claim that porn was the cause of his starting murdering. This comment reminded me of a comment by Polly Adler: "50 did a lot of girls who did not become famous Madams."

If his argument is correct it should be possible to list five or more murders for each copy you sell. So if you mail out 10,000 copies, it should be possible to list 50,000 girls murdered within a month or

Of course he did say that was raised in a Christian home. This might be the reason for any smaller number. I don't know much about the Bible but it would seem that it is OK to kill people who do not have lamb's blood smeared on their doors.

Perhaps your lawyer can advise you if you should add a statement about not being raised in a Christian home in the disclaimer you require of buyers.

Gentle Warriors is a book about San Francisco leathermen, caught in the manacles of the AIDS crisis and the discovery that HIV was planted by the CIA. A group of men have decided to do something about the situation, and have planned an action against the President during his impending visit to San Francisco. Gregg, who features in these two excerpts, is central to that secret plot.

In this episode, while thousands riot at City Hall and while the Federal Building on United Nations Plaza goes up in flames, Gregg is in a playroom with his young lover Eight-Ball (Tony). Together they live out the joys and convictions of leather experience that will drive Gregg forward into the conspiracy of the next few days.

The following morning, Gregg rides up Folsom Street to what will be the site of their final action in the plot against the President. As he rides, the memories of the Leather Mile and all its rich associations sweep over him. Names, organizations and places cry out to be remembered. A crazy, wonderful life brought him here and sent him spinning in many directions. He will never forget.

DRUMMER 127

Statement of Belief Noe Valley, San Francisco, Friday Evening

Gregg kept the radio and television off and played Klaus Schulze while he douched. He'd done a line of coke to relax a bit and he'd marvelled at how good his butthole felt, the warm water filling it; then surging out, each time taking a little larger volume as the water went deeper. Gregg wanted to be spotlessly clean. This was to be his final time, and he was determined to give and to get in a way God had always meant to use this sweet ass. When, finally, he was clean, he greased several stainless steel eggs and slipped them up his butt, pulled on his leather pants, and began to get dressed.

Gregg left for Tony's about nine, a short ride down through the Castro then over the hill to Noe Valley. He could see the glow over City Hall, but like the earlier wail of sirens, he ignored it. He knew it had to do with the rally. What else did they expect? That alternoon, he had caught Ed Stevens' now-classic lines, once again replayed on the radio: "I believe that I've been called by the Lord, and I've done proud on just that." Once again Gregg was sure he recognized the voice, even the name, but he didn't focus on the matter. He was thinking almost constantly about Tony. Yeah, what else did they expect? This City was fucking angry.

His body was feeling good, ready. His butt felt wonderful. He loved the way his bike glided up Diamond, over the hill and down toward 25th Street. He loved the way the warm steel shifted inside him when riding a bike: the eggs shifted with the curves, they massaged the inside walls of the rectum so it was ready for other things.

that afternoon, in a call to Gregg's office, Eight-ball had almost backed down. Gregg had used his utmost in persuasiveness. Now, as Tony opened the door, Gregg sensed uncertainty.

Each time Gregg and Tony played they ended up having a wonderful time. But each time, they had to overcome a reluctance, a sort of fear. For Tony that fear had grown thicker with each dead friend, most particularly now with Gary's death. Underlying this uncertainty was the question of whether or not Gregg, a man with AIDS, should have supposedly unsafe sex with another so far free of signs of the disease. They had talked about it, lots of times. They could switch to activities that were perfectly safe, as Allan had done. But neither Tony nor Gregg were content with that strategy. Fisting each other was a statement of belief, of spiritual union in this crazy time, of a special trust and love. Yet while they took precautions, each time they played some of the initial doubts were there.

Gregg took Tony into his arms. Tony was short and Italian, with curly, wiry hair and a black beard tight against his face. Gregg hugged him, rubbing his hands over his back. He could feel the body hair though his tank top. They kissed for a few minutes, beards rubbing together, while Gregg stroked his rounded butt.

"You douche?" Gregg asked him. "Yeah," Tony told him.

So it was going to work out all right, Gregg considered, If Eight-ball had gone this far, his refuctance could be overcome.

"Your housemates?"

"All gone to the rally, Said I could have the playroom for myself if I cleaned up afterwards. Want a beer?"

"Sure," Gregg told him, and Tony pulled a six-pack from the refrigerator. They descended the stairs from the kitchen to the garage and walked back into the playroom. Yony put the beer into a styrofoam cooler already filled with ice, but not before handing one to Gregg. The room was warm and votive candles were lit in its alcoves. As Tony closed the door and locked it, Gregg caught a glimpse of another playroom, of names on a wall. The thought passed. Tony turned to Gregg: he looked uncertain again,

Gregg leaned against a leatherpadded sawhorse. "Come here, Eightball," he said.

Tony leaned back against the blackpainted wall.

"Wanna start with some video?" he asked. "Get us more in the mood? I put your favorite, Erotic Hands, in the

"No video," Gregg told him. "Come on over here."

Tony stayed where he was. "What about some music?"

"OK," Gregg told him, playing along a little. "Our regular."

Their regular was Bach, hours of piano music that was hypnotic in the intimacy of its counterpoint: the Goldberg Variations, the Italian Suites, the German Suites. The music was unobtrusive, but when the ear picked up on it in the middle of play, the delicate counterpoint of several songs being sung at the same time, one song now dominant, now subordinate, was a wonderful metaphor.

Tony turned on the tape deck, his tight buns staring at Gregg. The playroom was suddenly full of gentle sounds.

Gentle Warriors

"So come over here, Eight ball."
Gregg was now sitting astride the sawhorse. His shirt was open to the navel so the dark hair pushed out and the chain between his tit rings was draped across it. Tony walked over and leaned against Gregg, tentatively.

"I know, buddy. You're scared. You're burt."

Gregg put his arms about Tony's shoulders and held him close. A tear ran from Tony's eye. He didn't bother brushing it away.

"I want to heal your hurt," Gregg told him. "I want to show you the world still loves you, buddy."

"Thanks," Tony answered, then: "I sure need that, Sir,"

They kissed again, this time for a long stretch.

"Then why don't you get out of those clothes," Gregg instructed him.

And Tony stripped off his guerrilla boots, his jeans, his T-shirt. His nipples showed nicely through his chest hair; they bulged with signs of heavy working. Tony lifted weights and had nice pecs: they pushed his nipples out yet further, "Nipples and pecs, nipples and pecs": James Broughton could have composed a wonderful ditty on their exquisite joys. Some even said that it was those nipples and pecs that had got Eight-ball his job as bartender at Castro Station. After stripping off his clothes, Tony pulled his guerrilla boots back over his thick wool socks, lacing them carefully. Like many horny guys, he loved getting his butt worked with those wonderful boots in the stirrups of the sling. Besides, he knew how much Gregg loved to lick boot.

Tony felt more confident now: he walked across to Gregg directly, straddled one of his leather-clad legs, and put his arm about him. Gregg had stripped of his shirt, replacing it with the leather yest. Black arm bands wrapped his biceps.

Tony reached for Gregg's lips with his own, and for Gregg's nipple with his right hand. He slipped his left hand between Gregg's vest and his back. They began kissing, Tony's tingers rubbing the ring in Gregg's nipple, drinking one another, affection poured like wine, each rub of hot flesh sending little thrills through the other. Despite more than a year with AIDS, Gregg's body was still muscular, full of sexual vitality. It had the same lankiness, the same thick tangle of hair, heavily touched with gray.

Tony, I want you to record this evening. I want you to put a clean tape in the video and turn the camera on before we start playing. Then I want you to forget it's there, taking a special message to the future.

With his right arm, Gregg circled Tony's waist, slipping his fingertips into the moist crack of Eight-ball's butt. Gregg had thick, hairy tingers and a nice wide list when he clenched it inside. But his hands were remarkably collapsible so that even the most bungry eyed could usually revel in them. Gregg stroked Tony's hole with his index tinger. He knew how much this special torm of loving that could only trom the most special of buddles. The hole was soft and relaxed from douching and silky to the touch, Tony had already moistened it with a little lube and the ends of Gregg's fingers slid in, to be welcomed by a sort of shiver running through Tony's body. The shiver broke the kissing for just an instant, then set it going again with even more passion.

"I want your hole, buddy," Gregg told him. "I want to spread your legs and work that hole open and slide my list in there and work it slow and gentle and then hard all at the same time. I want to work your but! so your gut and mind scream for more."

"Oh, do it to me, Sir. God, how I want you in me again, Sir."

"You want a joint before we start?" Gregg asked him.

"Sure," Tony said. And the shared one. Then Tony changed the tape and turned on the video camera and recorder poised near the playroom ceiling.

They stood beside the sling now, Gregg again with his hand on Tony's butt, the two central fingers tucked into the ready hole.

Gregg guided Tony backwards into the sling, lifting his butt a little, ensuring it was pushed out just the right distance over the edge, making sure the stirrups for his feet were at just the right height, making certain neck and head were comfortable. Gregg stroked the hairy, muscular legs. Then he unrolled skin-tight latex gloves over his hands and half-way up his forearms. With Tony watching intently, Gregg greased them carefully with one of the water-soluble lubes that was loaded with viricide. He smeared the lube up and down the gloves until they glistened. He formed a fist and then showed it to Tony. Tony stroked it, then leaned forward and kissed it. "When I do you, Eight-ball," Gregg told him, "I want you to not just think of me. I want you to think of all the times Gary worked your butt. I want you to remember how he loved you."

Eight-ball, vulnerable, full of desire, wanting it more than anything, began to cry. And through his tears he felt tingers probing and his butt yield and take half a hand, and he cried some more, it felt so good, looking up from the sling at this tall, sexy man with a rebel cap pulled down and shading his eyes and a hard bod and a beard lining his hard face, and Tony's ass just went wild with desire, with wanting it and expanded several notches more so the hand was in and probing softly, the smooth warm waves spinning round and round his head so that the tears dissolved into joy again and it was like all the times Gary had stroked him and loved him deep in there, and he called out softly to Gregg, oh yes Sir, please Sir, more Sir And Gregg, reaching for one of Tony's nipples with his free hand, began to work it slowly, just enough pain at the moment when he pulled his other hand back a bit so the widest point just hesitated at the rim of the hole. And Eight-ball, relaxed enough that his ass could be taken with ease, slipped back into ecstasy.

As Gregg moved his hand, turning it into a fist, then opening it, then clenching it again in little pulses all the white sliding it round in the holy warmth, all the time responding subconsciously to every moan, every little gasp and grunt that showed exactly where Eight-ball was, all the while coaxing the hole just a little more open, a little more flexible, a little more sensual, as Gregg leaned his shoulder against Eight-ball's right leg and caressed the edge of his boot, the crevices of its sole with his lips and tongue, so that several parts of his body worked finely and independently from one another, as Gregg let himself go transfixed, he felt Tony become the cosmos.

With each stroke and each turn of love he remembered other men he had fisted, turned onto in this special way. Men from the Ambush, the Catacombs, the Brig and the Eagle. Men he met on the street and in banks and at other play parties. Men from the Slot, Here were Steve McEachren and Hank Diethelm and Joe with his impish smile like on of those playful satyrs in the old Playboy cartoons. There was the insatiable pig-butt himself, David, screaming deeper and faster, and Big Jim who was deaf-mute but whose giant hands spoke with loving and full voice into any butt. He remembered Will and John and Bill and Dennis and Anthony, He remembered Rick Grasso, sweet Rick Grasso. He remembered Mark from L.A. He remembered Ron and Peter and Normand from Montreal and Skip and Tom and Bill and Conley from New York. Tears streamed through his mind at their exulting, at the beautiful memories of those brothers in their communion. There were Val and Ken and Bill in Seattle, and Sam and Bruce in Portland. It was like he had reached out and connected in the deepest ways across the whole world. There was Terry from Green Bay and Joe from New York, and Frank in Indianapolis and Miko from Tokyo. Here was Franz from Munich and Willi from Zurich, Allan from London and lean-Pierre from Bordeaux and Fred-Alain from Geneva. Suddenly he was feeling inside bodies from Denver and New Orleans and from Vancouver and Saskatoon, from Calgary, Toronto, Sioux Falls and Dalfas, There he was with Bob and his huge and tireless butt, here was Jim from the Prairies and Ron from Denver (how they all came to San Francisco to be together as part of this); he was in Phil from Atlanta and in Ed from L.A. There was that wonderful hunk, the spiritual flight attendant from Toronto, his butt trained as finely as his mind. Here was Geoff who wrote that book, what was its title, on how they were all aboriginals or something. Oh God, the blessed men he had known and loved and touched and cared about, everyone of them forever part of his own flesh and soul, all of their islands truly part of his main. Tears were no longer imagined, they poured down Gregg's face. Here was Ken from Lions Bay and Jack from Cupertino and John from Sunnyvale. There was Jim from Georgia, he could remember that butt and the way it vibrated with the delight of it all. Here was Hoot Gibson on the back of a bike at a Sierra runsite, and here was Carl, dear, sweet Carl whom he'd worked so many times but never so fine as that New Year's midnight at the Catacombs, both of them oblivious to the chimes and explosions of phony time that tried to screw them all daily.

For Gregg the tears stopped, and the tears started again. Many of those memories were of men who were dead or dying. He held back the sorrow and smiled and allowed the joy of it to take him over. He used the happiness of his memories to set himself free, translating it into this love for the cosmic Eight-ball. And as that transformation happened, Gregg rediscovered in himself that despite AIDS, he was still whole, and this his death, whatever it brought, would never shatter that wholeness. His bitterness towards his lover Allan shifted to a sadness, even to a sympathy. He thought of a lonely man who found it so very hard to deal with the terrible fragility of life.

Meanwhile, Tony drifted in and out of a wonderful eternity, a sort of fetal basket, wrapped in loving, sensual vibrations, and reaching out about him to a cosmos where stars, alone and in clusters, twinkled on distant velvet horizons. When he looked up towards Gregg, he saw a compassionate top full of strength through sadness. He saw a man to whom he wanted to give himself completely. And Gregg's devotion to Tony's boots only made Tony want to yield even more.

He closed his eyes and thought of the first time Gary had fisted him, a basement playroom in Chicago. He hadn't believed it would have been possible. Tony had already been Gary's slave for six months. He had spent many weekends stripped, shaved and shackled, awaiting Gary's commands or pleasures. He had learned how beautiful it can be to step out from under his own ego and hand himself over to another man's complete instruction. He trusted Gary. He would never have done it if he had not believed in, respected Gary. Gary had honored that trust. At the end of every weekend, when he set him free, Gary always reminded Tony: "Go and be your own man again. I love you as my slave but I also respect your free will. A true man learns to respect that will and know its limits."

Tony had returned week after week to that wonderful man who in the other world was a physician, who defied hospital regulations to remove all beards, not because they were unsanitary but because they were supposedly un-American. Tony learned from Gary about pain-pleasure, about the peace of bondage, and about the holy sacraments of licking boot. Tony had his nipples slapped and stretched and pinched so tight that all he could do was scream for more of the same excruciating pain and hope his eager hard-on wouldn't shoot. And Tony learned to get whipped, slowly, and then more as the pain turned into a wonderful glowing joy, Gary stroking his back and butt gently with his hands between blows. Oh how he learned from that man to give.

And then that night they smoked some grass and Tony was sent to douche. When he came back the sling had been hung, ominously, as if it had always been meant to be. He allowed Gary to gently open him up for the first time. Tony's mind spun over and over between the unexpected ecstasy of the action and the fear of finally letting go, of giving his butt. Oh God, how much he owed to that man who had passed on only two nights ago.

Tony began to cry again, and let his sadness be swept into and blended with the warmth that Gregg was pumping into him.

Yeah, it was funny that night Gary first fisted me, Tony recalled. Right after it, he surprised the shit out of me. He told me my training was over, Tomorrow night I would be initiated. Then, things would change. But Gary wouldn't say how.

saw a compassionate

Tony opened his eyes to slits and looked out at Gregg. God, how similar the two of them were. He wanted him and he wanted him and he wanted him. His butt seemed like it would never give out. Yes, the following night he had been taken to a Chicago bar, one of those places on the edge of the law. He had been stripped and shackled to the pool table. His mouth was stuffed with sweaty sock. Tony gave himself to all this, willingly. Gary began with his riding crop, slapping his shoulders, his backside, his butthole, at first gently and then harder and harder. Then he switched to a cat until red welts crossed Tony's back like latticework. Many were the moments Tony whimpered in ecstasy. He almost shot his load on the green felt of the table.

Tony looked at Gregg again. For an instant he saw Gary there. Fuck, how he wanted to get into Gregg's butt. How he needed it too. How Gregg needed to be punchfucked to the elbow, his big balls swaying as Tony's clenched fist entered and played and left only to enter again. How he wanted to pull on the chain between Gregg's tits so the nipples pulled way out from the body while the other hand plunged to full depth. Tony knew what Gregg wanted and he would give it to him later. Meanwhile, Tony was hard as hell and determined to cum.

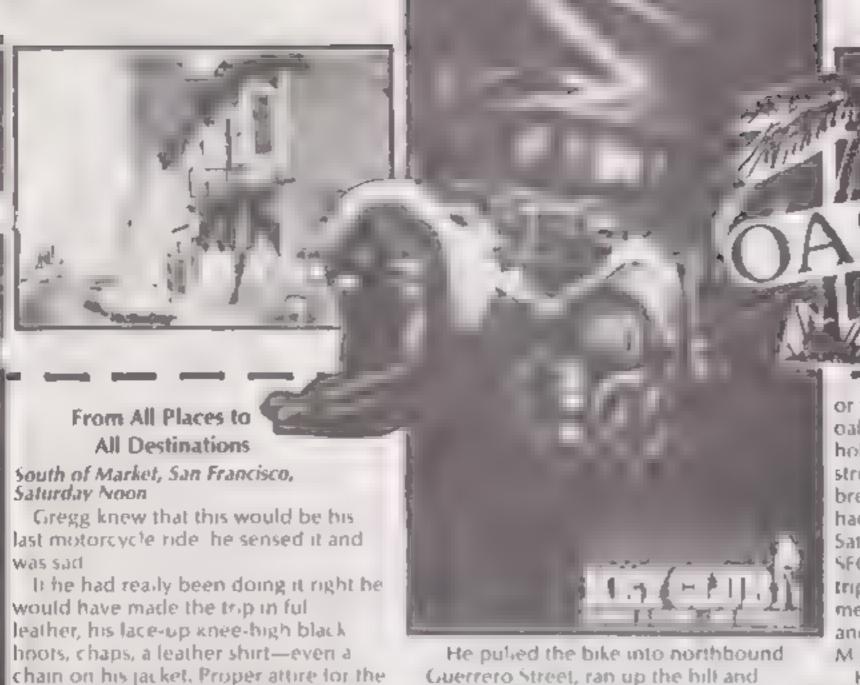

It had been the same with Gary. That had been the big surprise. When they had returned form the bar room initiation, Gary had astonished him by stripping out of his leather jacket and jeans and climbing into the sling. "A good bottom is a good top," he told Tony. No exceptions. "Fist my butt, Sir, like I've always wanted." And Tony found that Gary's hole could be as hungry and lovable as his own.

Gregg was aware now that Eight-ball was close to cumming, so he put even greater concentration in his movements. He went back to playing with Tony's tits. It didn't take long. Tony exploded, and his cum splattered onto the wall two feet behind the sling. He let go with a piercing scream.

Gregg waited a moment before removing his hand, pulling it out slowly, allowing Tony's ass to let go, to shit it out naturally and at an easy rate. Gregg stroked the hole as it closed. Then, bending over to the floor, he pulled a black ball from his tote bag, rubbed some lube on it, and pushed it in.

It was a small token, a memory.
When Gary had finished whipping Tony on that Chicago pool table, he had pushed an eight-ball into Tony's butt. Neither Tony nor the world had ever forgotten.

He pulsed the bike into northbound Guerrero Street, ran up the hilf and waited behind a van for the light to change at Duboce. A beat-up Lincoln pulled up beside him, teenagers gawking. Him or his bike? Someone mouthed the word taggot, and they sped on even before the light had changed. He ignored them. They were irrelevant.

Gregg turned right into Duboce then down the hill and under the treeway. He felt stoned. How many times had he made this trip? Mission to South Van Ness South Van Ness to Fo som Lett on Folsom. Now it was like all his life was spinning in front of him, in the y people talk about it unreeling in the throes of death. Maybe it was just that he was fired. Maybe if was some of the coke from the night before. No there was something unreal about all this. Something real and unreal. The posts were plastered with painted decals, CIAIDS, U.S. Out of San Francisco. kill Faggots. He didn't need to move to feel the lump in his shirt pocket, buried under his black motorcycle jacket, that was the vial of cultivated HIV Unreal. The virus that was killing him and halt the joy of Califorma, one by one. The virus that would finally hit home in the target it so richly deserved

The light changed before he reached Folsom and there was no oncoming traffic. He took the curve in a continuous sweep, it was what he best loved about this motorcycle as an extension of his body. The slightest shift in muscle or limb and his machine responded in continuous, sweeping motions as it did on Sterra highways, coming down the great curves from Miwok to Sonora, or the descent from Tollhouse to Prather or the long, winding rides through the oak woodlands below, where in little hollows, cottonwoods are tucked into stream crossings, and lacelike grey pine break the monotony of the oaks. Those had been trips to runs, many of them: Satyrs and Barbary Coasters and SEGDI's and Constantines. All these trips came back to this street and to its memories, this street from all worlds and to all destinations, the Leather Mile.

Here was the Oasis, a straight, yuppy hangout that had been in its litetime so many places. The Covered Wagon and the Leatherneck and the Drummer Key Club and even for a while the Gold Coast. They had laughed at the Leatherneck, some of them, Stand and Stare, they had called it. One of those places where the Castro queens who supposedly got dressed-up in leather came. down to pose, But Gregg doubted whether this was really so much the case, whether it was more a sort of South-of-Market put-down. He'd met lots of hot men there, men who were still friends (where they were still alive) He'd met some of them on the crowded sidewalk after closing

And there across the street, its venerable old sign desecrated in pink graftiti, the bar that had been Febes, one of the oldest on the Mile, with such a rich history of club meetings and friendships that even the television news touched on its closing, and those that always remember, those at the Ambush, held a retrospective in honor of that warp in time, that bar that reached back into the days of the first Gay bike clubs, those days of awakening hopes among forebrothers that were to explode in the Empress Jose's run for supervisor in the West, and Stonewall in the East. Paradise Garage, the hot pink letters screamed now like an obscenity; the bar was no more than a cheap overflow to the Oasis. Oh Christ how many times in riding past what had been Febes had Gregg felt so cheated that he could have firebombed the place

Was it really a conspiracy, these yuppy straights, taxing over this sacred turf. He had to remind himself that they what they had once called the Vailey of the Knights. Last night, he had loved one tinal time and with every bit of the essence that feather meant to him There had been titwork and assplay and slapping and loving that were intense and inescapable. Today he had to be inconspicuous could be friends, that they often were Was it opportunism, the shifting economic conditions? One couldn't run small, low-key bars in an area with increasing rents and absurd insurance rates. Or without heavy tourism AIDS had helped to cut that support. Sure, yuppy straights could at times be tacky, but he had a sense that they were more bewildered. Some of them had secretly admired the Gay community. Some of them actually had Gay friends and shared in Gay hopes and enthusiasms for new ways of life. Some of them had learned how to let go, to indulge. Others had even tried to emulate the Gay community's free and easy litestyle. Now they were frightened, aghast at the course AIDS had taken. But many were too frightened to feel anything else. The South of Market straight club scene had taken off with a bang and fizzled; it showed little sign of taking off again.

Gregg stopped at Tenth

Down there had been the Arena and the Stud and Chaps and the Ambush He could never forget the Ambush and the dreams it held between its walls. He had met Tony there. Not Eight-ball, but that other Tony who long ag introduced him to the club scene back in the days of places like Folsom Prison and the Boot Camp. Back when those sleazy parties like the Warlock's Witches Christmas or CMC Carnival in the basement of (how appropriate) Seamens Hall down on Fremont Street, parties that drew brothers from all over North America, flying in, riding in, to be here along the Leather Mile. Tony was dead now, but he had given Gregg one of his greatest gifts; how to ride a bike as part of one's self

That was the era Gregg had come out into leather. Leather was not a rebirth of his Vietnam psychoses. He hated those memories. They were as cold and as unappealing sexually as he could ever have believed. Maybe he had gone into the Marines with some yearnings tor brotherhood. But he had felt above that, he had disdained it. He was a leader, whether or not they made him one. He was a hero to himself. He had never expressed his latent homosexuality, least of all his leather desires in Vietnam although he sure fucked the Oriental women. But coming with an uptight ass is like having tea and cakes, possibly meaningful in other contexts.

When people like his now-dead triend Tony introduced him to leather in places like Folsom Prison and the Bolt, Gregg was discovering a new world of companionship that had strength. Men gave themselves and took possession of others and exchanged their souls because they respected each other, as far as that was humanly possible. It was not because they were in the same fucking War. together that demanded brutality and might tolerate affection as something to make conditions more bearable. It was like boots. Boots in the leather world were a sign of hard work, of the hard top, of the submission linked to self-respect. Boots in Vietnam were shit- and stime-covered devices of torture, feet screaming with the confinement of heat and rot. In Vietnam boots were not to worship. Today they were made to be adored. When Gregg fucked today he tried not to think of Vietnam and its images. Sure, deep underneath he may have longed for leather experience, but the war was not his motivation. He discovered his drive for it on streets like this one.

ME

A block away is the Powerhouse Gregg remembered it as the Bolt and the Brig, its predecessors. A wednesday night TAIL party. The first list in his butt, given by that incredible priest who just glowed with magic fire and Gregg wanting it but scared, and knowing he could take it, but scared, and this man finally going that last tiny inch, smoothing those muscles open, so that Gregg would never go back, so that he came alive to part of himself that had long been buried. There he was real and whole and feeling as wonderful as ever, a happy spirit as he could never have allowed himself to be

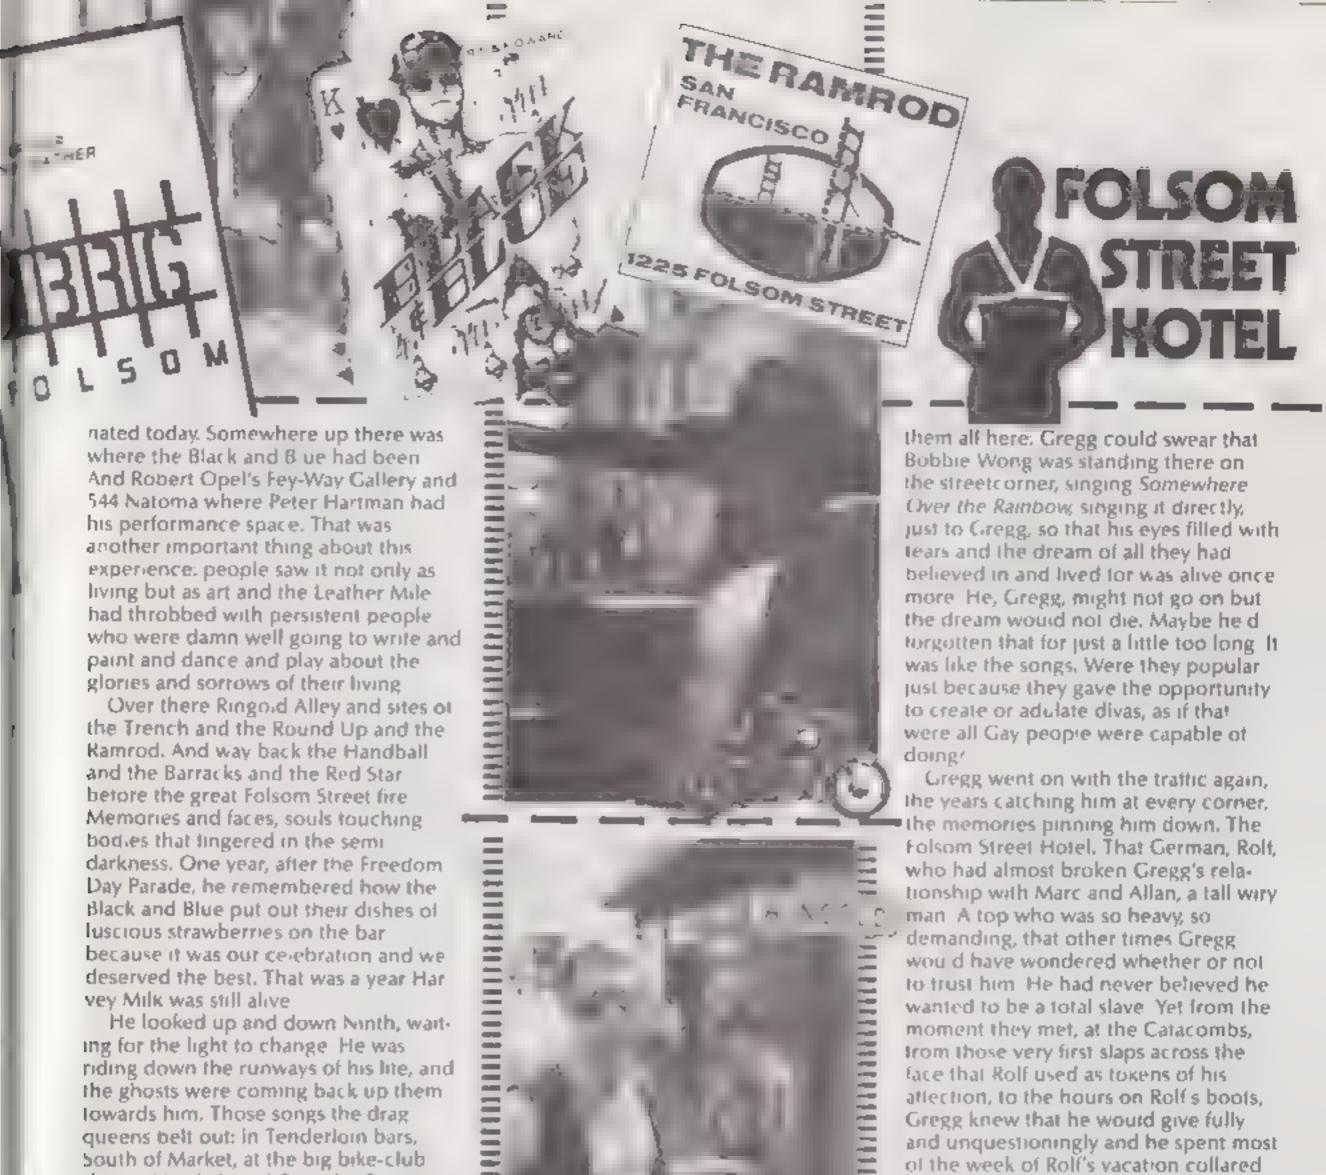

That was what had been so important about this Leather Aide that it had sustained a more intense traternity, men with new joy in their lives and new dreams in their hands. It was undeniably Gay, yes, and as an experience it would never tail to support the larger transitions happening in the City, But there was something separate, special about the being that came to be associated with the Mile. It was a seeing: if Gay was stepping out beyond Western society, then leather was stepping beyond the set.

It wasn't just the leather for Gregg, it was all the things it changed in him The self-real zation he had never had before. The caring loving men he interacted with. Oh sure, there had been those strained lanely nights, the times he'd drunk too much or played cruis ing games he was now ashamed of, but leather was so much more, Every way of life has its ups and downs and excesses and rough edges. If was that proud teeling of being out in leather, of riding in the Eagle contingent in the Freedom Day Parade, proud as hell that he could love in the way in which he believed and make a better world of it for himself and everybody else

REAR VIEW MARROR

BARS AND BIKES!

THE INCREDIBLE LIGHTNESS

From Amsterdam to New York, from Berlin to LA, from Houston to San Francisco, sex makes a man thirsty. Bars stake thirst. A pal takes a pal out for a drink Historically, in the awakening SodomOz of San Francisco, the sexual network of the Post-WWII 1950's South-of Market workingmen's hotels banged out a code on the heat pipes that some bars were hotter than others

Masculine homosexuality in San Francisco, in the late 50's, in a kind of male parthenogenesis (virgin-birth,) without taking an ad out in the papers, dared to show its don't-fuck-with-me new face. A New-Attitude bar Jack's On The Waterfront along the Embarcadero, north of Market and the Black Cat, also along the piers of the Embarcadero, South of Market reared their outch heads and roared.

SOMEWHERE A PLACE FOR US

Anonymous underground secret sex, exactly like the secret societies of Masons. Moose, and Elks, decided it needed its own meeting place. Gravity sucks, and when sucking is a man's gravity, that gravity, as wordless and ancient as following a sexy man down a deserted street, caused the underground seekers and suckers, like the Roman Christians in the catacombs, to somehow, maybe with that sixth sense gay men have, come out, rise, and converge in places they can call their own: especially along seaport docks, (And, ha! Hasn't such convergence always been the great fear of every straight-bar owner that his pub might turn queer? As recently as the 1988 TV season, that fear fueled an episode of the otherwise liberal sitcom, Cheers.

TELL THE JOE-BLOW YOU JUST BLEW

Just how does underground sex, London to Chicago, become institutionalized? Usually word-of-mouth. In the late 50's early 60's, savvy Cabbies, who always know "what's hot what's not," drove new guys tooking for action, down to, say, Baghdad

by-the-Bay's Embarcadero, because the taxi-man knew the pier-side cruising even tually led to a drink, and to have a drink a man has to go to a bar where he can butch-flirt and make out with some "audition" foreplay with his pick-up trick before taking him home to hit the horizontal High C's of the full Ring Cycle

That very "word of mouth," because it was oral, and because it was always changing as modern gay sex invented itself, evaporated like summer night-voices into thin air Bars came and went. Posters for like runs disintegrated. Everything was underground and throwaway especially the early gay newstags. Princeton and Stanford anthropologists weren't exactly preserving the artifacts and events of our class-trash subculture; like everyone else they were down on their knees in the backroom toilets.

CAN YOU SAY, "LEATHER HISTORY?"

Besides, in the age-old traditions of prejudice, homosexuality, nearly always verboten throughout history could hardly leave an overground record of its forbid den self. After all galety is lighter than air That's why fairles can fly and disappear without a trace for their own protection.

But we're no longer atraid. We're Stonewal Proud.

The A-Word threatens us as an endangered species

We want our history, which gives us our identity, told

Thus the necessity to try now to piece together how the sub-sub- culture of homosexuality, International Leather, ignited into the incredible lightness of being—both worldwide and especially in the leather weather Mecca of San Francisco.

BUTCH ELEGANCE A TASTE FOR RUFF STUFF

In elegant San Francisco, by luck of blue-cohar location, Jack's and the Brack Cat emerged as the first Hot Spots for high toned locals (with low-toned libidos) slumming down from Nob Hill, after supping at the piss-elegant Gordon's, to the rough facade of the Embarcadero piers. Both bars seemed to ignite simultaneously. While Jack's was for cruising and drinking, the Black Cat was the same—on the first floor; but downstairs in the basement, buddy, the first "back room" was packed with nasty men in unzipped leather.

Hot on these archetypal butch bars' hoot-heets, and much more self consciously, certain bars, overtly catering to leather money and action, specifically Lenny's 527 and The Tool Box, were creating themselves out of the smell of leather and man-to-man sex in the air North of Market, Leonard Mallette's bar. On The Levee, was butching itself up to leather, having been known previously as the Tin Angel.

FROM PAYOLA TO GAYOLA

Cops, second only to queers, know where the action is. And cops always know a good payoff when they see one. As word spread that Jack's and the Brack Cat were the latest fag bars, more than once, the SPPD (same-ol'-same-ol' as every other PD) in every other city, town, and village) was spotted dropping in to have "a tittle look around" and have their palms crossed with silver. Bar owners don't pay Badges for protection when the protection isn't needed. The cops' arrivar is the objective evidence that the Black Cat was a fully turned-out queer bar, and a new-style tough masculine bar at that! Some of the butch cops must have scratched their short-circuiting heads.

The very young Ron Ernst, not-yet-then the owner of Castro's tandmark Jaguar Bookstore, in 1961, was stopped outside the Black Cat by a cop who asked him, "Do you know what kind of bar you were in!"

Ron contesses he batted his lashes, hummed a chorus of "Over the Rainbow,"

Story by Michael Agreve

Drawing by W. Bruce Lee

Out here in tall timber country it takes an awful lot for a man to become the stuff that legends are made of. It takes hard work, hard drinkin', and plenty of hard dick to get the kind of reputation that another logger can respect. I oughta know After years of drinkin' and whorin' with the best, all you have to do is mention my name and guys'll be runnin' their mouths off with one of the many stories told about my legendary nights on the town. Some of those stories are even true, or at least nearly so. Most are just versions of the kind of stories that have been makin' the rounds in loggin' camps for years. But no matter how true or untrue those stories are, there's always been one man whose reputation made even the most strait-laced mountain men piss in their boots.

I'm talkin', of course, 'bout Big Red: the only man whose name brings fear into the eyes of some—and desire into the hearts of others.

For years I had been hearin' the stories 'bout Big Red's legendary pole and how he would use it to hook into man, woman, or animal, dependin' on what was available at the time. Some said he had a dick as thick as a redwood an' just as close to the sky once it's through growin'. Others said it weren't so much the size of the thing as the way he had of usin' it to chop down anything that came in his path. 'Course, there's still those who say that Big Red don't even exist at all, that he's just another one of them legends that growed up out of some poor pisser's overactive magination. As for me, well, I always kinda liked to believe all the stones were real, an that maybe one day I'd meet the big dude face to face.

"Don't bother countin' inches ~ You can't count that high"

See, I'm kinda partial to tall timber myself especially the kind that sticks straight out from between a man's legs. Like most of the men out here in the wilderness. I make do with that I can get. An' since most of what you can get 'round these part's got a dick attached to it, well, most of my nights are spent with my lips hooked onto some fucker's pole. So you can guess what all those stories 'bout Big Red's jumbo sized prick did to me. An' you can guess how I felt when I finally got a chance to turn some of them thoughts I was havin' 'bout Big Red into action

Yeah, I made it with the man all right. Guess it was bound to happen sooner or rater, what with him an' me both bein' famous for the kinda. meat we keep between our legs. Only it didn't happen easy-like. It happened after i had spent a couple of weeks lookin' for work. Things weren't too good right then. Most of the loggin' camps was closin' down I finally wound up somewhere in Washington State, followin' up on a tip I had heard through the scuttlebutt. Someone was sayin' that there was real money to be made up there. Only trouble was, it was real hard work Logs had to be hauled down rivers, just like they did in the old days. An' the accommodations weren't exactly the Hilton. Fact is it was more like it was in the old days, when you had a crew of men sharm' a bunkhouse twenty deep. That suited me fine, though, I got to see plenty of rock-solid bodies sportin' a couple days' sweat an' smellin' like they was tryin' to give the skunks a run for their money. But it wasn't until I had joined an even smaller crew further up the mountains that I got the best reward of ar Big Red

See, I was just gettin' myself settled in the small camp when I decided that it was time to do somethin' 'bout the two-days' funk that was greetin' me every time I raised my arms up. I could gone to the showers, but instead I decided that I'd do like they used to do way back when only streams and dicks pumped water. I headed down toward the fiver, walkin' down a narrow trial, thinkin' 'bout how beautiful it was there in the mountains and how lucky I was not to have to hole up in some big city. Before long I started daydreaming 'bout an old cocksuckin' buddy of mine, wishin' he was right there to do somethin' 'bout the way my dick was dancin up and down. Finally I decided it was time to do somethin' bout it myself so I turned off the trail and found myself a place to sit and jack off

I was just gettin' into it when I spotted somethin' movin' through the bushes. . . a flash of somethin' red. I stood up real quick, more worried about bein' seen poundin' my pud than anythin' else, when it suddenly dawned on me what I must be lookin' at it wasn't nothin' more than a carrot-top mop of hair peekin' in an' out of the tangle of shrubs 'longside the path, but right away my heart began to pound. I thought about a those stories I had been hearin' 'bout Big Red I knew there was plenty of other redheaded loggers out there. I had known more'n my share in my day. But somethin' 'bout the sound of the man's boots on the trampled ground made me think that whoever it was movin' through the bushes was sized like a bear. I couldn't do nothing but follow.

I stuffed my dick back in my pants an' started down the trail. I hung back some, catchin' a gimpse of him ever' once in a white. Once I saw a bare leg, covered in a tangle of hair. Another time at I could see was a stick of wood movin' from side to side like it was a hatchet cuttin' through the underbrush. That seemed real strange, 'till I realized what I was seein' wasn't a piece of wood at all. A bell went off inside my head and I knew I was right. The man walkin, through the woods in front of me could be none other than Big Red himself. It wasn't no stick he was wavin' from side to side as he made his way bare-assed toward the river It was just the goddamnedest, biggest dick I had ever seen on any human being before.

It wasn't just the size or thickness of the thing that made me stop dead in my tracks an' take a couple of hefty guips of mountain air it was the way it had moved from side to side, its knobby head lookin' like the gnarled end of a tree trunk that s been dug up, roots an' all. I had only seen it for a couple seconds, but I knew I would never forget the way it wore its tightly draped skin like somebody sidea of what a stone age club oughts look like. Not even my own nine-inch pecker could match it for size.

For a second it felt like the ground under me was gonna slide down the steep hillside. I had never been so weak-kneed before in my life. Only after I blinked my eyes a couple of times did I realize that it wasn't just the man's dick that was sized for the great outdoors. Catching a peek at him as he made his way straight across a clear stretch of land. I realized that everythin' 'bout him was Paul Burryon sized. His assigneeds resembled somebody sidea of a watermeion crackin open an' ready to spit out its seeds. I guessed his size to be 'bout six feet six inches tall and his weight a scale-bustin two hundred hitty pounds. He'll, even his feet were grant-sized, probably size fourteen at least—provin' what they say bout foot-size an' dick size. Only after I had totalled up all the figures in my head did I look down an see just what the sight of that oversized fucker was doin to me

I wasn't surprised to be sporting a boner that was threatening to bust through my pants any second if wanted desperately to take it out again an pump it up 'till it dropped some of its juices on the ground. But I knew if I did that, I would maybe miss catchin' up to the redheaded bear. So instead, I continued to snake my way down the path, hopin. Big Red was headin' down towards the river same as I was. No matter what I had to get another look at the real-life Bigloot who had just tramped through the bushes. Even if all I ended up with was another look at his cock, that would be enough to keep me happy for pienty of nights to come.

I walked as quickly and as quietly as I could I knew he hadn't seen me so far, an' I was intendin' to keep it that way I knew how dangerous bears could be, 'specially when they re mind n' their own business an' some fool comes nosin' up to 'em real curious-like. But I stopped thinking bout bein' cautious once I got to the bottom of the hill an got what was one of the best views of a human being any man could ever hope for

There was Big Red, all two-hundred-fifty pounds of him, chest-high in the river, singin' at the top of his lungs. Course, what came out wasn't exactly music like most of us know it. But then, I wasn't exactly after Mozart, either No, it was Big Red I was after An' it was Big Red I was starin' at

Up close the man was even more amazin' than I could ever hope for Not only was he hung like some prehistoric beast, he had a body full of coarse red hair that made me think of drawings I had seen of Wooly Mammoths in school books

Yeah, the man was giant-sized, all right. Underneath that incred ble pertine was sportin' was a body as rock soud as the trees swing n' overhead.

Every musc e ripp ed as he lifted one leg, then another high into the air as he waiked across the half-dry riverbed. His face wore a grin that only comes when a man is as free as the birds dancin loverhead. Two sets of perfectly white teeth shone out from a thick beard an equally dense moustache. I watched the drops of clear water run down from his hairy face onto his beety chest, ending in a waterfall just below his well-packed crotch.

With the confidence of an animal aware that there's nothin bigger around to give it trouble, the man strode onto the edge of the river. Then he walked over to a hearby outcrop of rock and stretched himself under the direct rays of the sun. He closed his eyes, giving me an opportunity to study his face up close for the first time. From the looks of his body I would have guessed his age to be somewhere hear mine, thirty years or so. But as I watched the sunlight illuminate the tiny creases around his eyes I realized that he was a lot older than that, maybe by ten or more years. That suited me just fine. I was always hot for a man who had a couple of years on me. More than once I had been grateful that some old timer? had taken a shine to my dick. Now, as I watched Red's tool flop to one side of his tree-trunk of a thigh, I realized it was my turn to return the favor.

Stal cautious, I walked down towards where he was tyin' I made no bones 'bout tryin' to be quiet. I wash't gonna go sneak n' up on this man made sure that I kicked up pienty of dirt as I moved towards him still not sure what I was gonna say once I got up close. When I was finally in his shadow, all I could say was one word.

Red?"

He didn't move a muscle

You Big Red?

Once again, there was only shance I thought bout turnin back and warkin away when suddenly his mouth opened up an his voice came boom n' out

"Bout time you stopped sneakin" round and showed your face like a man "

My mouth hung open. So he had knowed I was there all along 'Seems to me that when one fella starts followin, another man the least he can do is say what he's got on his mind.'

He turned towards me and opened up one eye. I could see the coldness of the mountain water reflected in its billeness.

"It also seems that when one le a starts lookin" at another man's dick.

Tike it was the first one he ever saw, that fella's got more on his mind than starting up a conversation."

I looked down at his massive cock, aware that my eyes had been traveling between it and his face ever since I had got the courage up to come closer.

'Don't bother country' inches. You can't count that high, 'Sides, it gets a lot bigger once i start playin, with it if you're interested I can show you just how big it can get. If you're not interested. I'd be real happy if you'd head back wherever it is you came from "

I thought for a minute. There was no denyin, that I was turned on by the fucker. My dick was playin, jump rope inside my teans. I just wasn't sure that I was ready to just chow down on his dick without at least gettin' a couple hours worth of slow burnin' in first, though. Quickles have never been my scene.

Well what's it gonna be? You gonna waste my time just lookin' or are you gonna start puttin your mouth where your eyes been?"

didn't have to think about it much more. I moved croser to where he was lyin' and reached out for his now half-hard cock.

"I ain t just lookin, if that's what you re worned about I'm prepared to show you just what I can do once I got a good dick to work on Only I ain't prepared to let you just get your rocks off then disappear into the woodwork I been thinkin for a long time what I do if I ever got hold of Big Red in the flesh. Now I got you I ain't about to let you go once I got your wad out. That ain't the way I work I want your dick, all right. Only I want it real slow and for a real long time. Now, if you can deal with that I imprepared to go the distance. If you're not, well it was nice finally meetin' up with ya."

It was his turn to be speechless. For a second I half expected the furry grant to ay into me with one of his club-like hands. Instead, he stood up in all his towering glory and wrapped one of his tree-like arms around my shoulder.

Damned if I ain't met up with a man after my own heart. You know how long it's been since anybody's wanted anythin' more'n a quick lickal my dick? Boy, you don't know what you just done for Big Red. You just made my day. You just made my fack no day.

I watched him as he pulled in closer towards me and let his body touch mine for the first time. It was like suddenly bein' connected to an electric generator. First, the tinglin' started at the point where his oversized dick was touchin mine. Then it ran down my legs as I started drippin precum down my jeans. Sparks started fiyin' as his hands reached towards my crotch an' popped open the buttons one by one. In another second, his hand was pullin' out my cock an igent y strokin it with one hand while the other had made its way across my chest onto my nipples instantly, my tits started matchin, the erection my dick was thrown'. From my head to my toes sparks were 1 yin' out, threaten nito light up all the dry limber fround us. I lipoked up into the man's eyes and drew him even closer to me instantly, our bodies ignified. If we didn't do someth ni bout puttin out the fire real soon, we'd both be turned to ashes in another minute.

Hey, Red how 'bout you'n me headin' back to one of them empty cabins fore we start burnin up the woods?

the hesitated for a moment, then nodded his head. We both knew that it was goin to be difficult bein in the same camp an' knowin' that there was more between us than just friendship. As we made our way back up the path, I could sense that Big Red was thinkin' real hard, bout what the other guys would say if they caught us suckin each other's cocks and makin love like we was a pair of bull moose in heat. It was one thing to help a buddy get his rocks off now an then it was another thing to hold a man close to you and suck face for hours on end. But as we made our way into the tiny cab in I had spotted on the way down to their ver an them kinds thoughts started disappearin'. We were far enough away from the main camp that nobody disappearin'. We were than that, we were both too fuckin hot for each other to give a damn what anybody else would think.

"Hey, Red, mind team" me one thing? What made you so sure that I was itchin' to swallow that dick of yours? I might justa been one of them curious type leas who only want to see if you match up to all the stories they feel bout ya."

"You mighta been But you wasn t. Big Red ain't the only man what a got a reputation I heard bout you way back in Montana Only what heard wasn t what most of the guys was tellin". What I heard came from guys what knew what they was talkin "bout Guys who grab cock first then say "scuse me later Solinggered it was time that we met "Long as was head noup this way I figgered I might as well take care of my own tall timber an maybe yours in the bargain. Anyways, a friend of mine pointed you out to me when you wasn't look n' The rest was easy. I followed you down towards the river shucked my crothes an started paradin' the one thing in the world I knew you wouldn't be able to resist —guess it worked. It got you hooked, didn't it? Now, et's start seein just how far it's gonna get me now that we've finally cut the ice..."

His voice traked off, leaving me a couple seconds to think bout just what kinda reputation I had in some circles and list what kinda reputation I was going have now that I had finally caught up with the lamous red man of regend. But those thoughts soon were pushed into the back of my brain as Red moved closer to me and grabbed me in a bear hug that knocked the wind outsiny lungs. I half expected him to follow it up with a rab to the ribs. Instead, he reared his face in towards mine and pushed his fur-lined lips up against mine.

The last thing in the world I had expected from the towering g ant was a soul kiss. But as his longue entered my mouth and began to explore every inch of it. I realized that there would probably be a lot more surprises in store for me before the day was over Sure enough, the man slowly maneuvered my body across the room an onto the bare mattress on the cot that stood in the far corner in another second, his bulk was planted on top of mine pinning me soudly to the faded stoped fabric.

Now, let's see if what they been sayin' 'bout you is true. Let's see how you handle Big Red's pole.'

So swift was the change from gentle giant to swaggering forceleeder that I hardly had time to catch my breath. I realized that no matter what he said or did part of him would always act like the wild animal he so closely resembled. As he moved his body upwards on mine I could see his eyes pleadin, with me to let him do things his way, even if only just this once. It was an unspoken plea that I just couldn't ignore. With his massive cock poised just an inch or two away from my face all I could do was open up my mouth an prepare my jaws to receive the pounding they Mete about to det clooked directly into the narrow piss slit peekin' out from under its thick blanket of foreskin an let my tongue move outward over the deepty wrinkled liesh it tasted ake the man himself sweaty an hot. As he moved his cock slowly towards my lips I groaned with the knowledge that soon I would be suckin on his agendary dick. I wanted it more desperately than I had ever wanted any other cock in my life. I was prepared to bear whatever pain it was going to cost me to swallow every inch of I. He knew that As he moved his dick in closer for the fall, his hand brushed against my smooth shaven cheek. With a gent eness that belied his size, he caressed my skin. Then he thrust his cock deep inside my throat an imade me swa, ow each and every impossibly huge inch-

"Just lean back, boy, Big Red's gonna take good care of that . dick of yours"

Il was impossible to breathe. Only when he brought it back up out of my guiet was I abie to inhale fresh air. Then, as he rammed it back down into my waiting mouth, even that air was sucked out by the force of his downward thrust. For what seemed like forever I struggled to stay aime as my throat muscles were repeatedly assaulted. Only after what seemed like a year's worth of face fucking did - finally begin to relax an enjoy the way his prick filed my throat so completely

With every slap of his huge bails against my chin I could feel my body v bratin, with pleasure. He was tak nome beyond the place where pleasure comes from just havin' a dick buried down your throat, into another world completely. My brain was ridin, high on the full feelin. I got every time i swallowed another inch of his oversized prick. It was like althe dicks I had ever sucked on had suddenly been joined together into one mass of skin an ibuiging veins that was mine to enjoy I was beinrewarded for a those hights , had gone to sleep wishin' I had something to suck on sides my thamb. But his dick alone wasn't the only reward t was gettin for my effort. As the slow, even thrusts of his dick down my throat went from pain to intense pleasure. I knew that it was only a matter of time 'fore all the dick fokin' produced the desired result.

As sure as shootin', it was only another couple of minutes, fore I was thinkin that I would drown in his cum. As I had begun to adjust to the feelin of havin' so many inches stuffed inside of me I had started grippin his shaft with my lips, milkin' his cock as it moved slowly up an down That was more in he could stand. Hell, it was more'n any man could stand. His breathin' had started slowin' down at about the same time that his body had begun to vibrate «ke a bow strung cross a hiddle. He started pantin like an animal. Then he increased the time between the up and down strokes of his cock inside my throat. For a second I panicked as I gasped for air. But as I began to taste the watery trick e of his precum sodin' down my guilet, I knew that I could haid my breath for as long as it took him to let go of his load

Fortunately it wasn't all that long. The minute I began slid n' my tongue. under his foreskin, I knew that he dibe popping any minute it could feel his cock vibratin as I massaged his dick is head a hundred times a second. His face was turnin' a brighter red than his hair. Sudden y, a sound escaped from his lips that was more terrifyin than anythin' I had ever heard comin' from an animal. It was like a bull gettin his bails caught in a steel trap I wondered about just how far the sound of I would carry, then stopped wonderin about anything as his hand pushed my face down to the red-pubed base of his bear-sized dick

In another second, my entire mouth was being to ed by spurt after spurt of thick hot cock cream. So great was the force of his cummin' that I had to clamp my lips together tightly just to hold the sticky juices in my mouth long enough to swallow Just as I thought that the flow was about to stop, another dam-burst of spunk came flyin, out of his tube down into my throat. All totalled, it felt like I had swallowed a quart of semen It was more spunk that I usually swallowed in a whole year more than I had ever been given from one man before or since. I could still laste it comin long after his cock had started goin' soft. Only when he pulled it out of my mouth did I see the flow had finally stopped. All that remained was a thin dribble of what might very well have been my spit. I was about to go for even that last remaining trick a when he gently pushed my lace back down onto the pillow

My turn, now You did more n you share of the work. Now I'm gonna show you the stuff that legends are made of Just lean back, boy. Big.

Red s gonna take good care of that dick of yours."

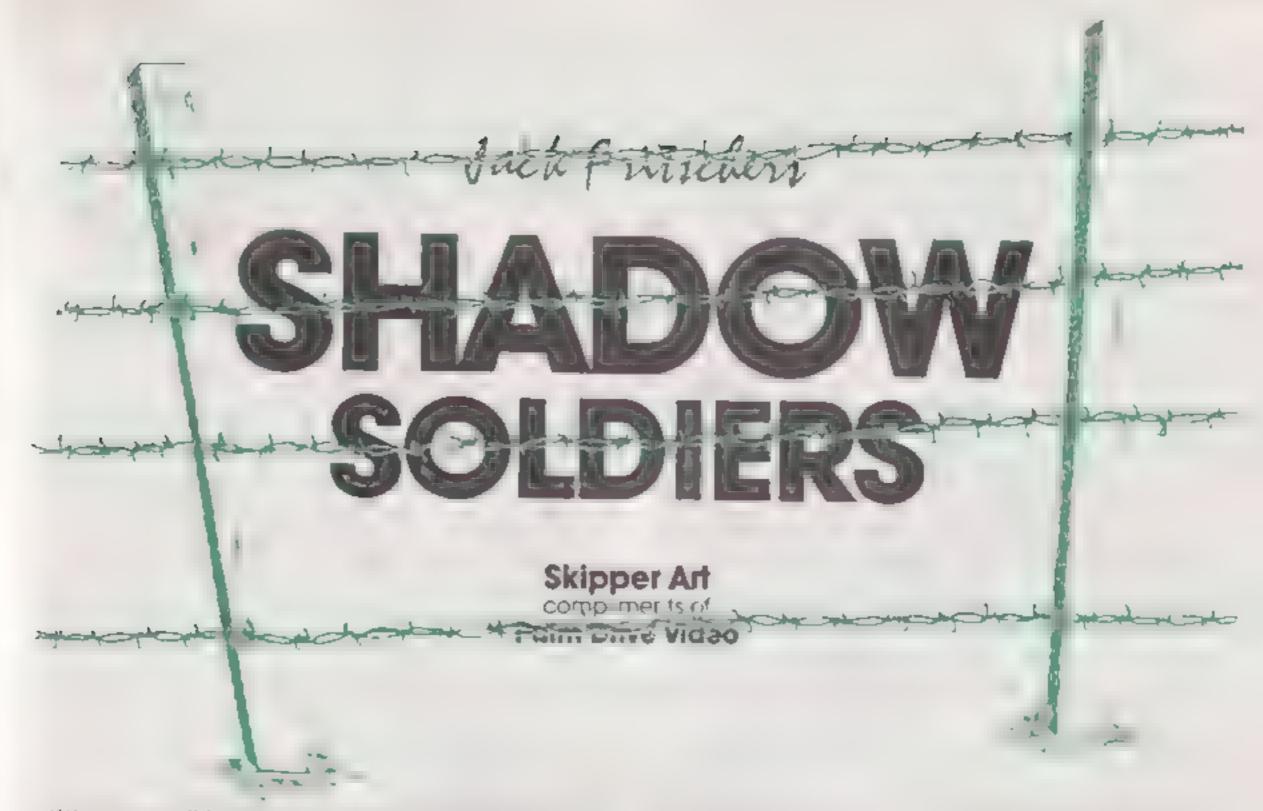

I did just ake he said closin my eyes until all I could feel was the unbelievable pleasure of having a hot mouth clamped around my own sizable tool. Big Red hadn't fied. There was more to his regulation than just the size of his dick. As his tongue made its way across every hot inch of my dick, I knew that I dinever had an probably never would again get another cocksucking like the one he was giving me. It was as if his mouth was some kind of minkin machine whose only purpose was to suck and draw out every drop of cream restin deep inside my shaft. So expert was his technique that when I find y reached the point of climaxin', it was as if a hole had been opened up deep in the center of the earth and molten lava had been released up into my cock

As each spurt came one after the other his mouth quickly swallowed every drop faster and faster. He was swiggin, my cock to be like it was a pint of beer, not stoppin' 'till there wasn't a single drop left inside me it knew that it would be hours before I d be able to shoot again. But as the glant of a man snuggled his body in closer to mine. I knew I didn't have to wonder what we was gonna do to then

We would each be thinkin' bout how great it was that two men whose reputations were know far an wide had suddenly found each other in the backwoods of Washington, I would be lyin next to Big Red, my fingers runnin. through the dense mat of hair that covered his powerfully built body. He would be leasin' my rippies with his oversized fingers, urgin them to swell so that he could claim them for his own, he ther one of us would be sayin, much. We'd both be staring out the window, watchin' the saplings movin' back an' forth as they caught the late afternoon breeze We'd watch the sun go down together aware that after three long bouts of lovemakin we were still ready, willin an abie to begin another Only when mornin came round would we be worry n' bout whether or not we was bein' missed. I figgered that by that time the guys d have realized just what happens when two men of legend meet. We would both rest easy in each other arms. We was the biggest and the best of 'em. We was 8ig Red and his Li'l Buddy, two tree-cuttin fuckers suckin' their way cross the western mountains. We was the stuff that legends are made of

Hell, we still are

"War criminal?" Lieutenant J. G. Steve Drosky, USAF, could hardly believe the verdict pronounced by the slope military judge, down from Hanoi for the mock trial. Drosky sweated in the blazing Asian sunlight. He stood, tied, in the central compound of some godforsaken village in North Vetnam. He wore the same green hylon flightsuit he had worn the day his A4 Skyhawk had been shot down

In the last two weeks of the war, he had been streaking up the Gulf of Tonkin, under bright skies, toward the torpedo boot base at Hon Gay, north of Haiphong

His big American-Palack body smalled tipe in the jungle heat Sweat, darkening the nylon under his pits, ran down his skin. His cheeks, chin, and throat liched with the—how long was it?—ten-day bristle

His hands, crossed at the wrist, had been hed tight by a young Viet Cong who had spit his contempt in Drosky's face Drosky spit back. He had a bruise to show for it. The purple bloomed through his dark brond stubble of beard. In the tropical heat, the sun was darkening his fair skin and lightening his eyebrows and moustache.

He was hungry. He was thirsty. He needed a cigarette

His big uncut dick itched under the foreskin he hadn't been able to reach to strip back in over a week. The VC, tearing his bulisized build, kept his wrists fied behind his back, alternately in topes and in irons. He knew the crack of his hairy ass was crusted. The tucking slopes were intent on humiliating the best and the brightest of the American fliers every way they could

Through each Interrogation, Drosky had given only name, rank, and serial number. He was learning fast that he, and probably the other two Americans, also fied for trial and seniencing in the shadowless highnoon sun, were the only three people in the whole compound who gave a fucking shit about the Geneva Convention. Drosky had never before seen the other two Americans until he had been dragged out of his so tary-confinement cage for this fitteen minute trial.

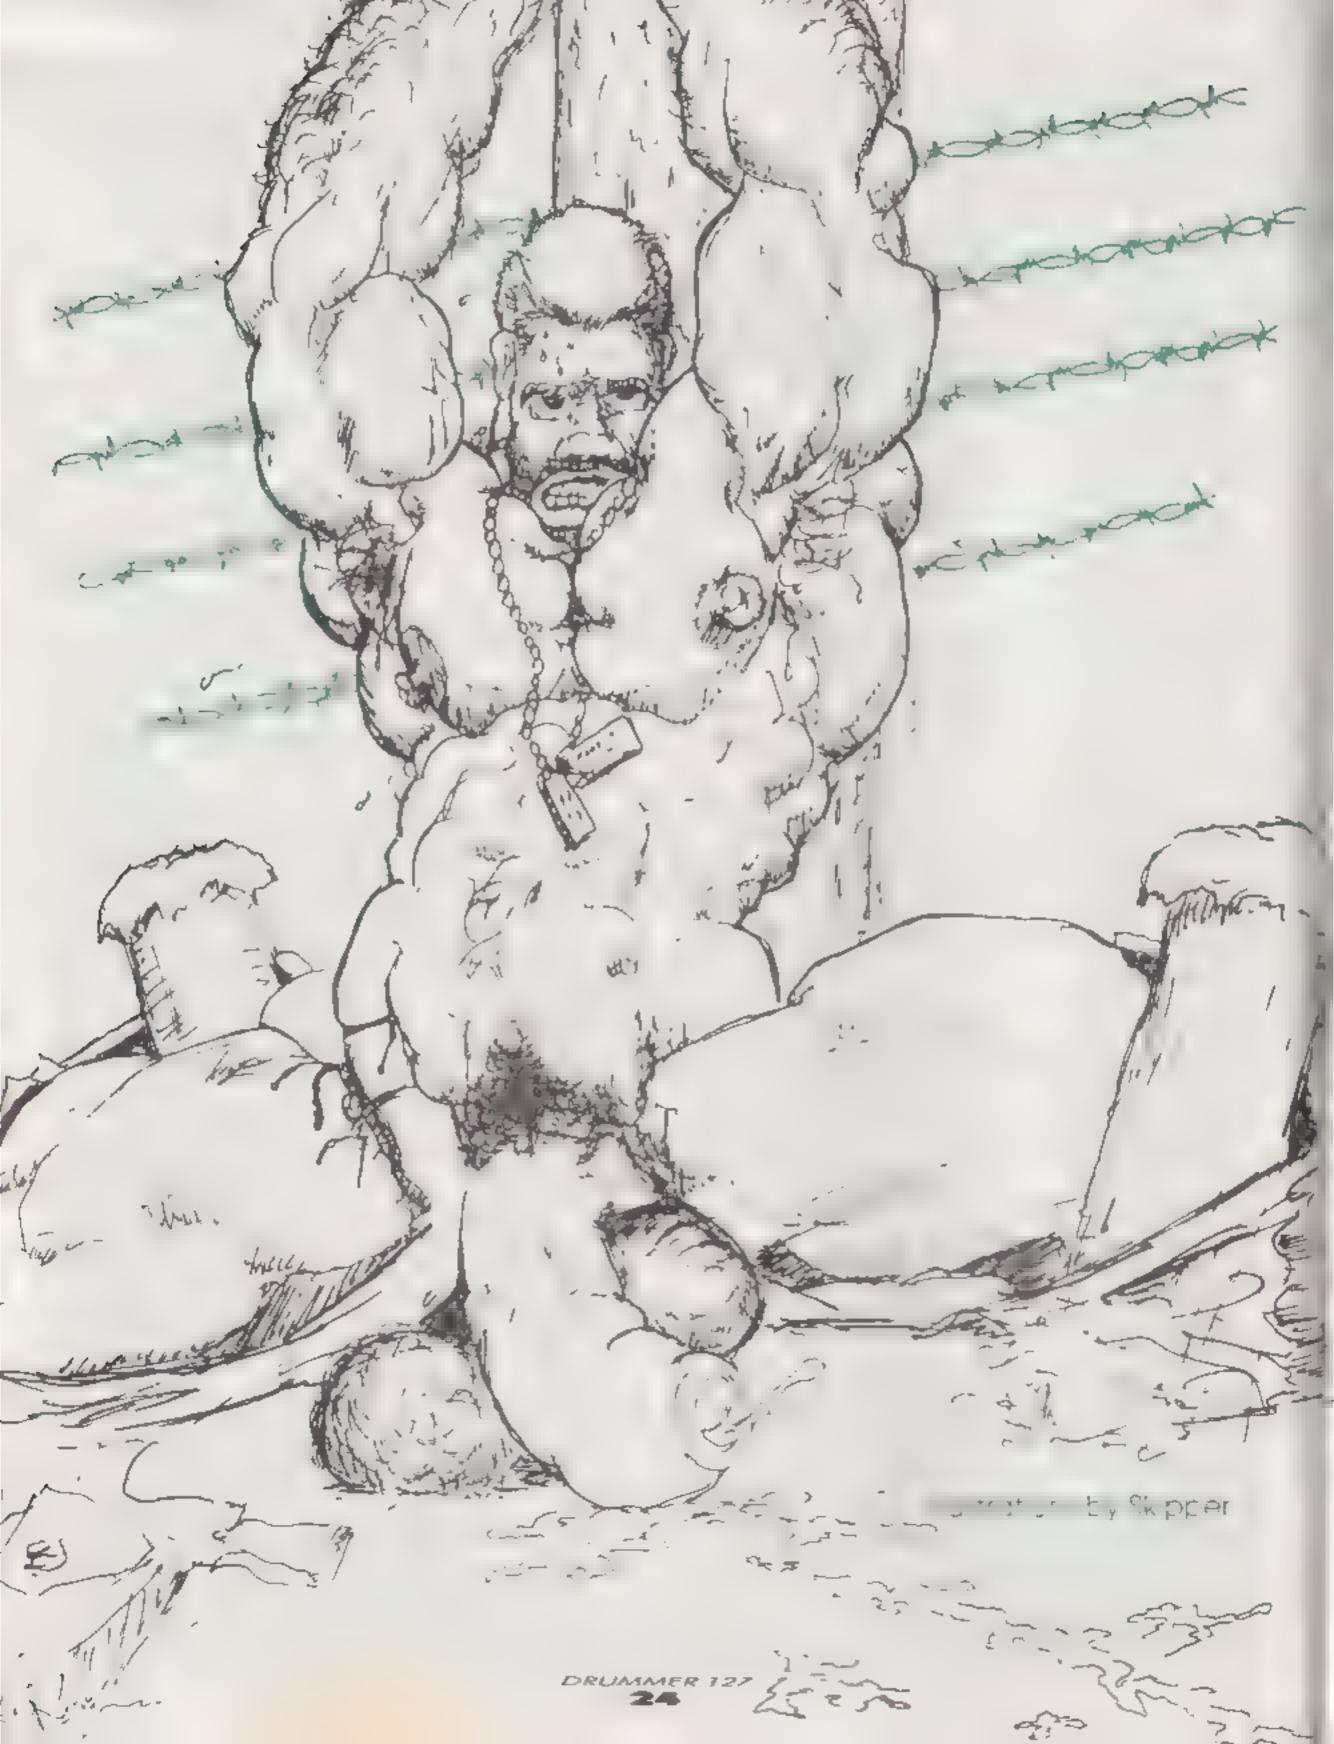

Drosky figured one of the two other Americans for a flier He was strapped up spreadeagle ten yards to the right of Drosky the stored straight ahead, as it once he had seen something so terrible he would never look at anything again. The judge's words "life sentence" hardly seemed to register on his face Drosky calculated from the weathered look of the lean flier's body that he had been bound to the bamboo tripod for some days and nights. His flight suit had been sliced aff and he was exposed head and torso and legs. The VC had stripped him down to his green boxer skirvles and boats. His dog tags g istened against his hairy chest. Even crusted with the sweat and dust of this fillby captivity, he looked to Drosky like the kind of goodlooking skyjockey who, stateside, gets valunteered for recruiting posters.

To his left, Drosky checked out the other captured American He had been trucked into the compound about an hour after Drosky's fied wrists had been hoisted up painfully behind his back to a fall metal pole the village children had once used to tether their game ball. Drosky figured he wasn't going to be any braver in this one than he needed to be. He wasn't any John-Fucking-Wayne, but he was an Air Force officer, a career pilot, 28-years-old, married, with one kid, a son. His shift was together But the sight of the VC troop truck pulling into the compound with the second American had sickened him

A half-dozen young VC soldiers, commanded by a squal burly captain with a shaved bullethead milled around the handsome young Marine. The USMC grunt was hanging suspended from the metal carryas-cover struts arched over the bed of the truck. Unable to touch his feet to the floor to steady himself, he swung back and forth like a side of young American year. He was too young to be beef.

Drosky figured the kid for no more than nineteen Twenty, tops. He was a fresh capture. The sidewall clip of his burr cut was less than a week old. He was stripped shirtless, down to his green langues and boots. A bamboo pole cutting into the small of his back held the crooks of his arms immobile.

against the frontward putt of his forearms which were manaared by the wrists light across his hard belly.

the looked to Drosky like the kind of kid who captains his high school football fearn in the fact, and entists the next spring, right after graduation. On the third finger of the young Manne's left hand Drosky spotted the trash of what looked like a new gold band.

That was a mistake

All in-country multary personnel had been ordered to avoid wearing wedding rings into combat. The VC liked to use the intormation that a prisoner was marked against him. Drosky himself, after his shootdown, stripped off his flight glove, removed his wedding ring held it a long moment, and then tossed the gold band far from him into a rice paddy

That act more than anything made him realize he had left civi ization for behind

Drosky found it hard to lett anything much about the kid's tace. He eyes looked tough enough, though he seemed to refuse to took at Drosky, even when the VC took hold of the bamboo pole and lifted him high and long and slow, so his whole body weight hung excrucialingly from his manacted arms in the stow march toward Drosky. The Marine was embarrassed, the bondage itself had become torture. As the VC carried him in agony close past Drosky's face, they stopped, and forcibly turned the handsome Marine's face for Drosky's inspection.

The dirty VC hands held the suspended American's head painfully still. Drosky studied the kid's mudcrusted chin and lips and nose The young Marine avoided Drosky's stare. A fresh cut clotted through the kid's left eyebrow. The VC displayed him hanging in front of Drosky's own fied body. The squat captain with the bullethead moved in. Corrying a swagger stick, he approached the young Marine's mouth. With one quick blow he broke off the kid's two front teeth.

"You like?" the captain said to Drosky

Drosky felt sick to his guts. It was more than blood crusted on the bound Marine's face it was lungle fith, the kind of mud snakes slither through to kill things that only come out at night.

The slope captain threatened the bound Monne with a couple of pulled-punch swings at his tight-closed lips and cienched, broken feeth. He poked his swagger stick at the dirty face and parted the caked lips. Drosky watched the sworlen full cheeks of the good-poking boy's face. Another threatening tap. The kid was scared.

The Corps had taught him obedience as the best solution to every situation

He pulled his tips back Bullethead topped at his bleeding teeth. Another tap Hoisted in middle suspension, he hung helpless. He parted his jaws. Obediently Bullethead nudged the tip of his swagger teasingly into the boy's mouth, then churning deeper Poking deeper Fucking deeper Into the terrified Grunt's mouth. Past his gagging. Post his vomit.

The young Manne's body stiffened and swung defenseessly. His eyes opened wide in terror at the renewed forcefeeding Bullethead ordered up a bucket of fetid water, and with the kid's mouth pried open with the swagger stick, motioned for the fadling of crickets and small tree frogs to begin Drasky himself began to gag at the same moment that Bullethead triggered, with his hardchurning swaggerstick, the gag reflex in the young Marine painfully swinging by his aims in the humid sunlight. Bullethead stepped back, and the young VC soldiers aughed, as the young Marine tossed up the dark jungle stime. They pinched his nose closed and fed a hose past his lips, through his teeth, over his tongue, and down his throat to his belly, slipping a small live snake down the tube, watching the kid's belly expand and contract with the dying snake.

Finally he raised his eyes to look the three-feet directly into Drosky's eyes. He was crying, and he said, with his voice deep and husky from the rubber tube and the filth of war, "I'm sarry, sir,"

Builethead slammed him across the cheek with his swagger, and the guards camed him to another iron post twenty feet upwind of Drosky. They hung the bamboo pore securing his arms from the ropes. But this time, stripping his combat boots from his feet, they let his toes touch the muddy ground.

Blood ran from his nose

The other flier, the Major, seemed to have chosen to notice nothing Drosky figured maybe he was smart. Maybe that was the way to survive. But Drosky could not help hearing the flies and seeing the pire of vomit that the VC had garged up out of the Manne's guts. None of them, Drosky knew, was ever going to get out of this alive. Charlie was fierce about the Americans Drosky knew enough captor psychology. The odds were against the three of them, Severely abused prisoners rarely live to tell their stories.

The young Marine, at the pronouncement of his "war comes stopped his sobbing He spit two words from his bloody mouth. "Fuck you!" He spit his brown spit of the VC squatting in the hot sun. They to ighed a id spit back and then bored, moved out of range, leaving the three Americans hanging each in his own private agony to the scorohing sun the suffocating humidity, and the low drone of hungry flies.

Drosky realized that even a short life, sentenced by these sadistic animals, might be longer than he could handle. But he figured they were maybe more sound than fury. In his guts, he was a fighter. He felt his tangue thickening with thirst in his mouth. He thought of old football scores. The feeling had long gone out of his hands. He thought of intricate flight plans for two days, the three men, fed only rice and boiled fish heads, were left strung up exposed to rain and sun in the compound. Drosky ran multiplication tables forwards and backwards He picked out names for his captors, like shaved-down Captain Bullethead.

Drosky had enough fight in him to want to punch out and fucking kill the VC making a game of huminating the American soldiers. Unfied, Drosky figured he was big enough to take them all on. Fucking Charlier But he was not unfied the could not stop the VC coming out, forcing him to his knees, pulling their short fat dicks out, pissing on his face and chest, hosing him with the high-pressure force of their short, thick, rice-rocket dicks. His own Polock sweat was like a moist shield on his bland skin. He hated the drunken piss of the young VC soldiers. Most were no more than victous teenagers

One of the fuckers, built like Mr Mekong Delta, came out from his hooch almost hourly. He was half-French Almost goodlooking. Drosky figured him for the camp stud. Threatening Drosky with a pistol, Mekong forced him to his knees, causing his arms, still fied behind him, to pull painfully up past his shoulders. The shirtless Eurasian, built like a young tank, liked to order Drosky to wotch him strut his stuff. When he whipped his dick out, he displayed his pizzie like some prize water buffalo at a cattle show. He was hung big, uncut, and mean. He threatened Drosky's face with the helf of his hang.

Drosky knew a pervert when he saw one

Mekong's piss was humiliation enough. His wagging dick, hardening, was no way, Jose, acceptable to Drosky, who knew the facts of the way life sometimes was he'd circlejerked a couple times in high school, and let one of his drinking buddies one drunken night back at the Air Force Academy climb on top him, and bump beilies, till the cadet came and passed out on top of Drosky, who only half-endured the episode While he'd been doing his buddy a favor, he'd been half-thinking thoughts about the girl who become, and still

was his wife

Erosky knew if he ever got out of this alive some of this heid never be able to tell her. He knew, if he lived through all this, he dinever be able to tell anyone.

Drosky vowed to keep forever to himself how the muscular. young, haif-french VC with the middleweight powerlifter's build, stroked up his big dick. He was proud to sexually humiliate the American He liked to show off his enormous size." We are not all small," he said, spitting into Drosky's eyes. With his big wang babbing from his uniform, he took cash from the circle of drunken slopes who'd bet on anything. They

"Drosity felf the man's huge military rod slam deep back in his head. and then descend. penetraling down his throat. He had never felt more violated in his life. Dros y went through gagging into choking and felt himself heading down a deep dark airless corridor. His penultimate thought was refusal to die like this."

argued and wagered how far down Drosky's throat Mr. Mexong Delta's heavy artiflery could slide, before the pussy American, they called him, choked and begged for mercy.

Mr. Mekong Delta liked to suffocate bound fliers on his enormous meat

The muscular halfbreed flexed his arms and made a fist Drosky read his threat. If he bit the frag-gook, he'd lose his teeth. For openers, in the trade-off of death-before-dishonor bulishit and raw survival, Drosky opened his mouth. Reluctantily. The rape situation left him little choice. He allowed his

I ps to be parted by the knobhead of the dick. It was hard, long, and big. Mekong slammed his right fist hard into his left paim, six inches above Drosky's face. Drosky took a deep breath, and dropped his lower jaw, just the way he'd instructed his wife, but ever so much more tenderly, before she was even his fiancee

The circumference of the monster cock raised Drosky's upper lip high enough to brush his thick moustache into his nose. He was revolted by the suck slide of the huge cockhead depressing his longue and probing back toward his defenseless throat. The muscular in-and-out thrust and tease began. Mekong was on show. The drinking and bets increased Mexong punched his fist and palm together again

Queer to them, Drosky knew, was only when a man was on the receiving end. The man dishing it out was not only untainted, but was about as manty and patriotic as a soldier could be To the VC, the sexual abuse of an American was an honorable way to insult the aggressive macho warriors who, so much bigger than Asians, dropped in full battle armor out of the sky into the forbidden jungle, lightyears from the lives they'd known.

Mekong's big lat dick forced its way with vengeance into Drosky s virgin mouth. With the bets running high as blood lust, the heavy-built VC took Drosky's blond head in his brown hands, and, pulling his dick out to the wet edge of Drosky's ups, spread his thick legs, and stanced his hard butt, for the final deep ram past Drosky's teeth, across his tangue, and finally... finally... through the raped and breeding back of his mouth, deep down his gagging throat

Drosky felt the man's huge military rod slam deep back in his head, and then descend, penetrating, down his throat. He had never tell more violated in his life. Mekong held Drosky's face impaled on his cock. Drosky went through gagging into choking and feit himself heading down a deep dark alriess comdor. His penultimate thought was refusal to die like this Instinctively, with hardly any purchase around the big dick rooted in his throat. Drosky fucking goddam fried to bite the pervert's dick off

All helt broke loose!

Mekong screamed at Drosky's toothsome lunge. Near Drosky's left ear, a pistol fired loud into the ground. Mekang yanked his bitten dick out fast. Drosky tasted the film of blood where his teeth had scrapped the cock. He wished he'd more than only skinned the gook dick. He knew what was coming as Mekong's heavily muscled arms drove the hardhanded fists into his face. Mekong beat and kicked Drosky unconscious. He slumped over into the mud falling off to the his side. He could not reach the ground, not even for a moment's rest. His arms, still hed at the wasts behind his back, stretched beyond poin up his back, higher than his head. HatEkneeling half-hanging, he passed out

When Drosky awake he knew he was in worse trouble. The full length of his body had been completely colled in tight hemp rope Like wire around a spool. The VC squatted on their haunches around him, seeming to map out strategies for some mission Drosky could not make out. Occasionally one of them yelled at him and kicked him. This was it. He was sure they'd hang him by his heels, skin him airve, chop off his nuts, and finally his head

A truck pulled up and stopped, brakes squeaking, motor running, next to him, blue exhaust choking him. Several VC came at Drosky

"Open mouth!" Captain Bullethead shouled

"Back so soon?" Drosky said. His mouth was parched "Open mouth!"

"You guys are real oral" Drosky was no silent fool "Open mouth!" Builethead brooked no resistance

Drosky refused. He locked his cracked lips together Bullethead took one of Drosky's bland-stubbled cheeks in each of his martial hands and squeezed hard until Drosky's eyes winced and his mouth was forced open in pain Bullethead signalled to an ugly young soldier. He smiled Drosky fixed on the ugly soldier's missing front feeth. The soldier crumpied old newspaper into balls and shoved them one by one into Drosky's mouth. Drosky wished he had kicked out the ugly mothertucker's teeth himself. Bullethead kept the agonizing pressure-pinch on his cheeks. A second soldier took Bullethead's swagger and shoved the dry newspaper balls farther over Drosky's langue and deep into his throat

Drosky started to gag and panic. He could no longer breathe through his mouth. The hard dirty fists forced the dry newspaper rolls in until his mouth and cheeks were stuffed. He could not salivate. He was scared. Death in combat had arways been heroically, patriotically acceptable. But not

ihis

Drosky stored hard at that ugly, grinning, broken-toothed motherfucker's mouth. He memorized the face. He would remember it if he had to take vengeance in hell. His anger saved him. He was mad enough. He'd beat these tuckers Somehow, Someday, Somewhere, He concentrated, By will alone, he breathed around the dry wads of newsprint clogging his throat. Through his nose Slowly, Carefully, Evenly

Then the grinning toothless asshole blindfolded him

The VC lifted Drosky's body, tightly coiled in endless rope, into the truck. He was helpless. For the first time in his wholesome, athletic, All-American life, he was scared shiftless

They drove him slowly in a 72-hour convoy toward Hanol. They stopped in villages along the route to display him, the bound and gagged American war criminal. At one stop, he was sure when they look the blindfold off that he was about to be beheaded. At another village, a crowd of more than five hundred soldiers milled around, seeming intent on storing him to death. At another encompment, he was stood bound and gagged and wired to a post in front of a firing squad, all of them recruits no more than twelve or thirteen, who for an hour were put through repeated execution drills: the command, the count, the captured American M-16 rifles, their cold young eyes squinting to the rifle sites, the raised sword. the shouled command to Fire, the empty clicks of a dozen unloaded rifles barreling in and sited on Drosky's face and chest and grain

During another convoy stop, the VC rolled and wrapped Drosky's big body in filthy blankets that completely covered his head and face. They left him alone, unguarded, and bound in the enclosed bed of the truck. Sweat poured off his big body. Again he felt he was suffocating, dying, smathering under a wrap of dirty rags at the side of a nameless road far

He vowed to escape. He struggled, unable to move any of his body colled in the fight tope. He rolled his head side to side, as much as he could, trying like a man driven mad to get free of the smothering wool. No one paid any attention to his struggling. He was one American, One man, They were thousands. They were getting to him. His bodily functions were out of control. Everything was getting way out of control

Within minutes, Bullethead unwrapped Drosky's head. removed the blindfold, and pulled the newspaper from his mouth

"You are war criminal," Bullethead said. His voice was as even as his steady dark eyes. He knew how to exploit fear, "We are going to hang you."

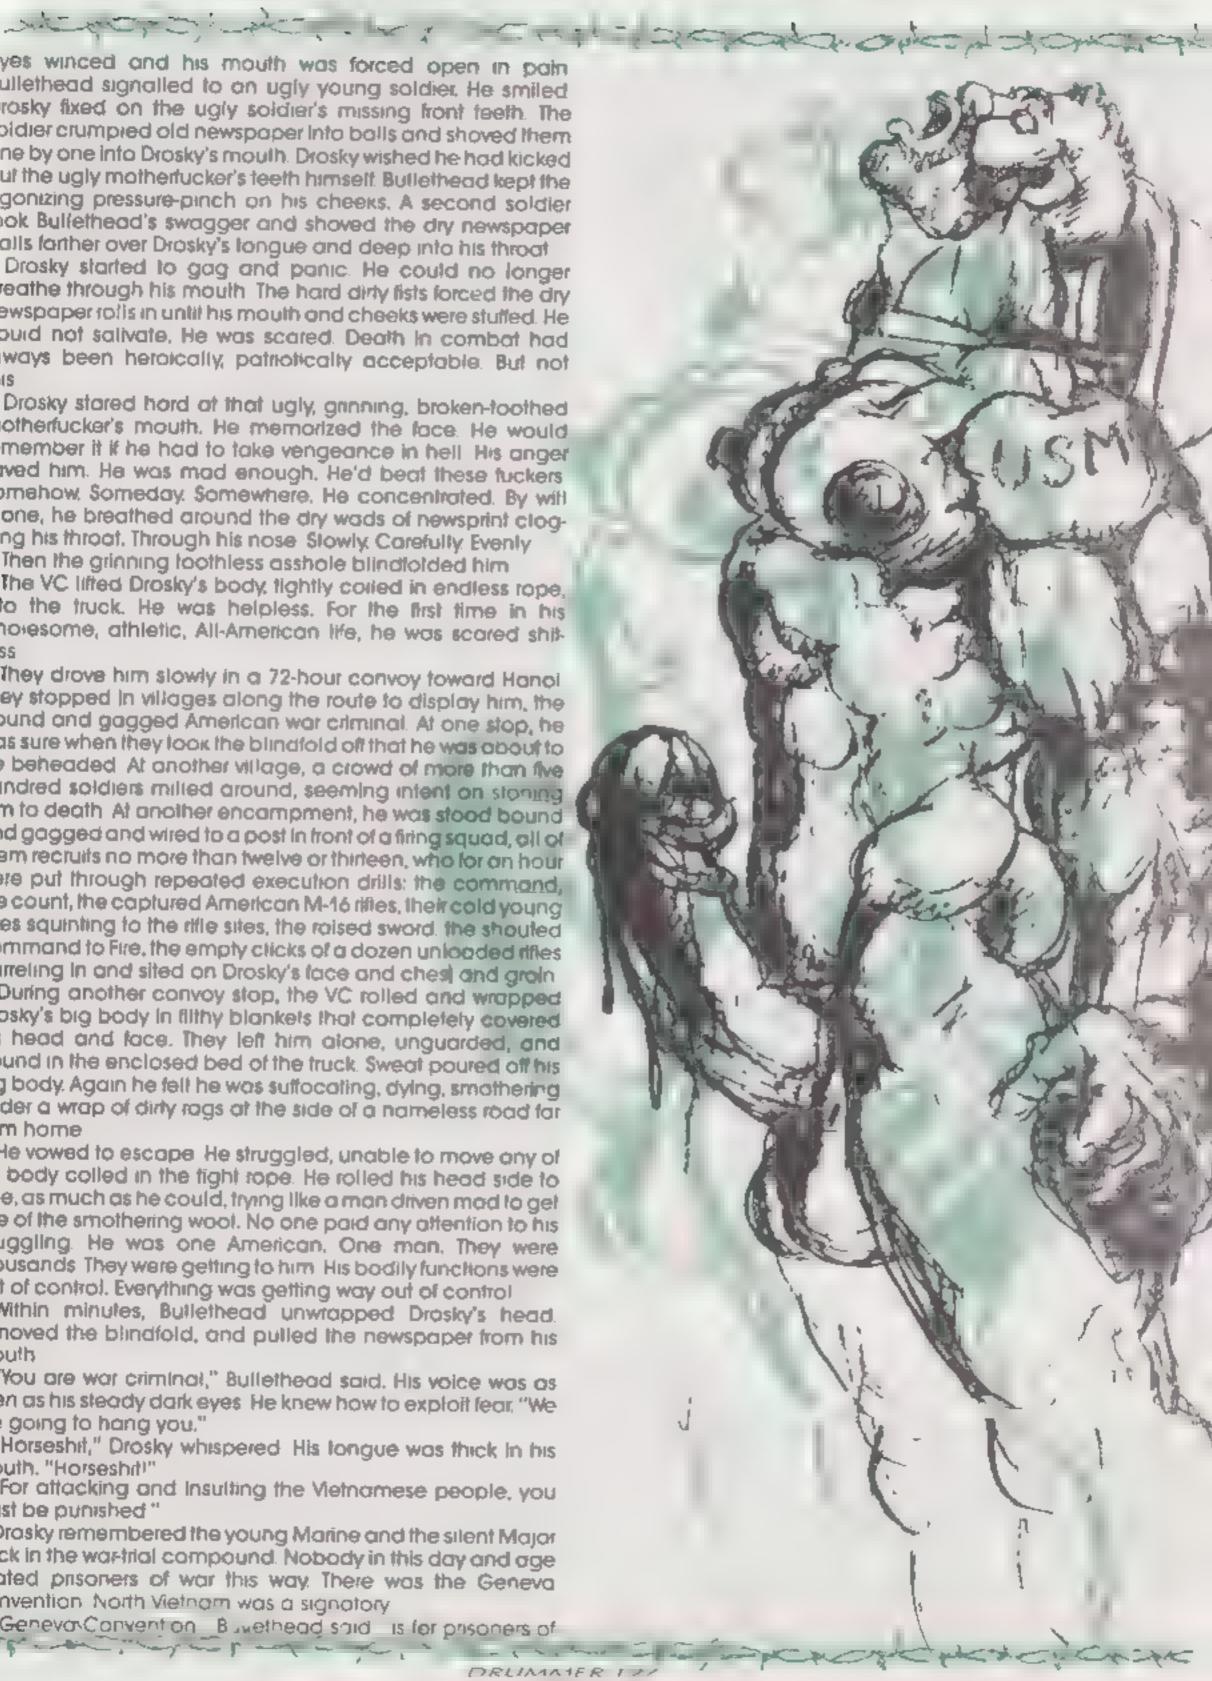

"Horseshit," Drosky whispered His longue was thick in his mouth. "Horseshit!"

'For attacking and Insulting the Vietnamese people, you must be punished."

Drosky remembered the young Marine and the silent Major back in the wartrial compound. Nobody in this day and age treated prisoners of war this way. There was the Geneva Convention North Vietnam was a signatory

Geneva-Convention Busethead said is for prisoners of I want to the same of the

A STATE OF THE STA and the second of the second war. You are... war criminal "

Bullethead signalled for a half-dozen soldiers to hoist Drosky out of the truck. They untied the rope winding around his body, but they kept his hands fied behind his back. The stench of his own flesh no longer bothered Drosky. He was beginning to like the aggressive smell of his own big American body. He figured it was about the only weapon he had

The VC called him a filthy pig Drosky cut his cheese as loud as he had ever farted during

"On a signal from Bullethead, the alternate beating of the Marine's white built began The VC on the last ran full speed at the Marine's definectess body, sheing down across the unmarred white meat of the American ass. The kid regred his head as the slice of rubber slashed red-hot into his flesh."

gaslighting ceremonies in high school, when he and his jock buddies had drunk a lot of beer, pissed a lot of piss, eaten a of of chill dogs and lit with matches the gas-farts they blew out their asses as they mooned each other in contests for the loudest and most explosive stinkers.

A flithy pig? He'd show them a filthy American pig He forted again.

The VC backed away from him.

Bullethead ordered him strung up by the neck, with only his toes toughing the ground. The bright sun burned into his face

He squinted, reconning the area. Tied near a truck, similar to the one in which the VC had transported Drosky, was the young Manne. Drosky was surprised, and not too happy to see the kid again. He was a survivor at heart, but Drosky could fell the way Bulle headapp hek a tharreparted to waste him. Better he'd been shot dead than stand in as their amusement for a bared night's encampment. Drosky was grad he himself was older and tougher than the young Manne His Academy training warned him the VC were perverts when it came to Americans

The kid's too juicy, Drosky thought, much too juley to be out here, a thousand years from nowhere

The blistering sun was setting over the far trees, sinking into the horizon like the last light protecting them from the heart of darkness

The fwilight encouraged the hungry VC

They stripped the young Marine noked, more naked than the kid had ever been, only six months before showering after. a friday night high school football game. More naked than he had been the night of the day that goddam gold wedding ring had been slipped on his finger. More naked than his first group shower as a USMC boot

Drosky figured the lud was, like him and his own son, from some small town where they never thought of circumcising theirboys. Be had an unusually in jell printreskin booding. the blind head of his healthy comfed cock Bullethead directed his special vengeance against the young bland Manne. The VC spread the kid belly-down over a metal oil drum. His full rounded white buttocks glowed in the twilight's last glearning. Vagrant clouds of cooking-fire smoke blew over his body and loward Drosky.

Drosky fried to look away, but Bullethead assured him—as he leared—this was for Drosky's benefit. An experienced flier had uses but young Marines were pleasantly expendable Some VC hunled Ame and server of the pressure of the slow kill

The Manne's bare butt was higher than his head and feet. The VC soldier at the head of each line held a rubber fan belt in his hand

On a signal from Buttethead, the alternating beating of the Monne's white built began The VC on the left swung his arm repeatedly over his heart is a raise and then with a watery that broke the quiet of the firelit encampment, ran tull-speed at the Marine's defenseless body, arm swinging to full arc. sucing down across the unmarred white meat of the American ass. The kid reared his head as the slice of rubber slashed red-hot into his flesh

Then the soldier at the head of the left column took his running lick with his trayed rubber fan belt, striking a red welt casscross the slash from the right. Passing the fan beits back to the head of the lines, the grisly relay race of whipping fore first the skin, then the bloody fiesh, and finally into the deep muscle of the Marine's buttocks

Bound and helpless his first silent courage became shouts became cries became screams became shrieking became moans, until. Drosky knew, his voice shredded and was gone

Buriethead ordered five or six of the soldiers to stroke their own short-arm dicks to penetrate the groaning Marine's bloody ass. can Their dicks dripped with the Manne's blood and sweat They laughed, and spat on him, and congratulated each other like night marauders after successful penetration of enemy lines.

Drosky disengaged. He composed a list. Anything to somehow balance this horror half a world away from everything he ever knew. He'd buy his wife a ring. He'd buy his son his first ball glove. He'd buy himself a car stereo. Some cassettes ... A goddam hunting rifle To kill the goddam sonsabitches. His fear had been one thing. This horror, . this afracity, ... was another. Drosky had heard of Mylal, and worse; but all the fucking politics and all the fucking villages-wasted-to-savethem had nothing to do with this boy's personal final agony.

"You like show?" Bullethead spoke in close to Drosky's face, pully from the noose of rope tightening slowly around his neck

Drosky spat at him.

Bullethead smashed his face with an uppercut

The VC toyed with the Marine. Intent on playing him out They unfied him from the oil drum. He punched out at them with what was left of his husky strength. Drosky was glad to see he had some fight left. The VC wrestled him to the ground, and staked him out spreadeagie on his back. Bullethead ordered the Marine's wedding ring pulled off his finger. He pointed with his swagger stick at the dirty bland penis. The VC laughed at the size of the finger-ring compared to the thick American dick. In one rough-handed minute, they spit-worked the Marine's big cockhead through the ring, and forced the gold band down tight around its root

The pressure of the hands pulling, forcing, stubbing his dick through the metal caused the whipped and spreadeagled Marine's cock to stand at full attention. Drosky watched the helpless kid look in honor at his own dick, hardening against his will, flooped back on his dirty beily, then rising, turning filling—its thick veins made thicker by the strangling pressure of the ring

A dick on a naked man, bound, and exposed, full of heavy unmiked sperm, aches to blow its pressurized nut off. The Marine's body, caked with sweat and dust and stime, was too resident. He was taking too long to die

Drosky knew what was coming. He watched the involuntary hardening of the Marine's cock. He watched the fifthy shaft of the abused dick writhing, filling, rising. He watched, unbeliev-

ing

The big USMC dick pointed straight up from the spreadeagled body. The shaft, rooted in crud-calaid bland crotch. hair, was dark with dirt; but the pressure of the wedding ring forced open the big lip of uncut foreskin

Drosky could hardly believe the size of the big wet pink head rising rosy-clean and bulbous, crowning the boy's huge shaft, with the heavy collar of foreskin rolling back under the intense pressure

The head glistened above the filthy tortured body. A drop of clear lube pearled up in the Marine's piss slit. It rose, bubbled bigger, then flowed slow and wet down the shaft of filthy cock

The VC gathered in close, cutting off Drosky's view. Something in him made him think how fucking proud he was that these envious slopes could see a beaten, tortured, bound American male body with enough balls to affront them with dick harder and bigger than they had ever seen before

The young bland Marine's erection was his ultimate "Fuck you, asshole!"

Bullethead ordered his soldiers to stand back. He wanted Drosky's view clear and unobstructed. With a pointing of his swagger stick, Builethead signalled for a renegade Montegnaid scout to carry out the finish of the night's entertainment squatted next to the Manne's body. Drosky could not afford any longer to feel sorry for the kid. Any feeling now was too expensive. He tried to think of nothing as he watched with increasing disconnection from the scene

The naked Montegnard rubbed something, grease and something, across the broad hairy chest of the Marine. stroking the curling mat of bland fur almost sensuously, working the oil into the bland brush, across the chest, down the hairy belly, and deep into the crotch around the huge erect dick. The young kid's body glistened in the firelight

The sky was moonless

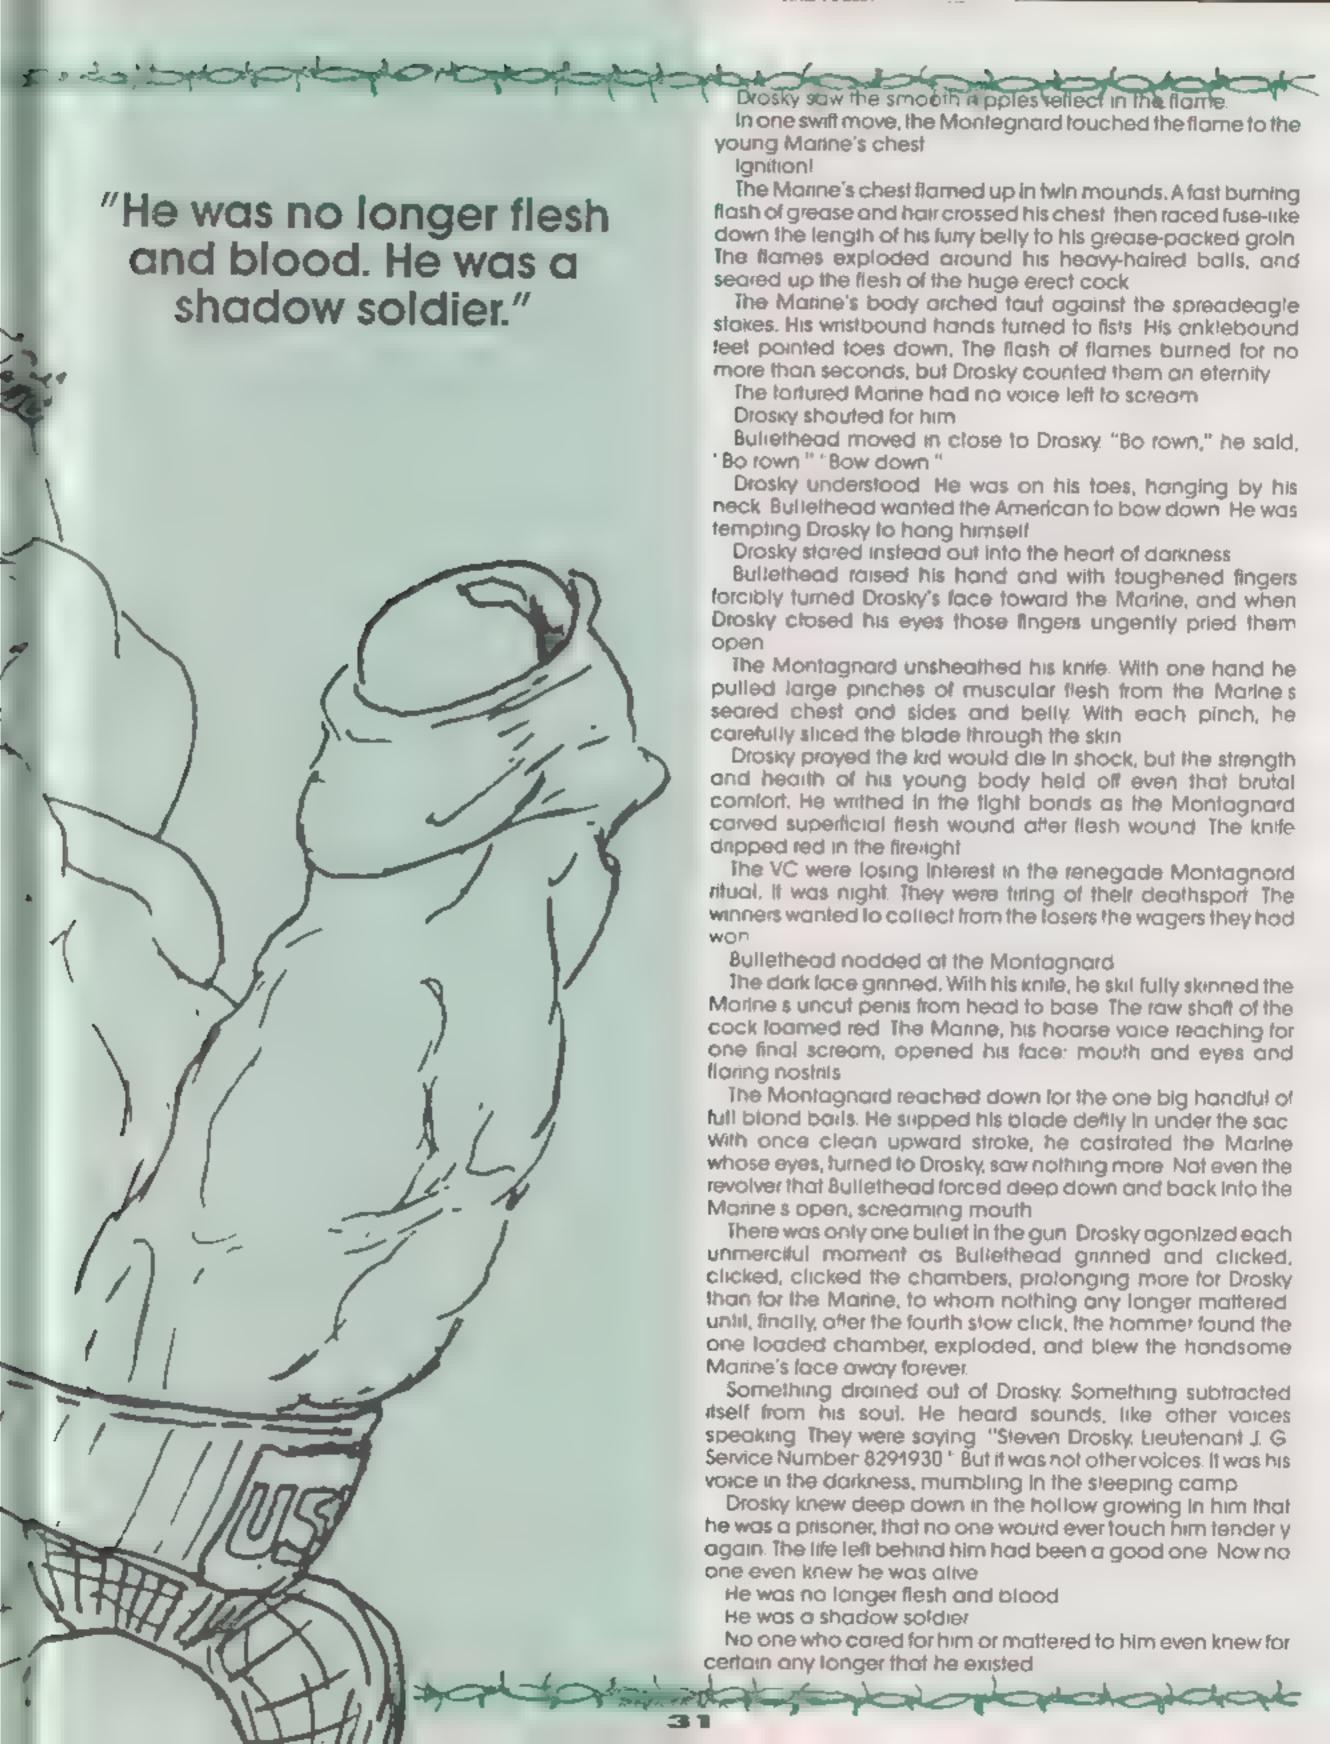

The Montegnard, squatting on his haunches next to the Manne, shipped his hand into his breechclout, and pulled out an American-made lighter, in one hand, he held his rifle, With the other, he thumbrolled the lighter to a flickering flame

For eight so almonths deep in the so lary confinement of a fetial tiger cage somewhere near Hanoi, Drosky fought to keep his sanity, and as much physical strength as he could nurture off the tin-plate diet of liverish meat paste, cut sometimes with pieces of park fat; watery pumpkin soup; and small toaves of French bread packed with weevils and rat feces

Guards walked over the grates above him. They ignored him. He exercised he meditated No one spoke to him. He did not exist. He scratched designs on the wall. No one listened when he spoke. He pulled lice from his fifthy prison clothes. He strangers, but they were soldiers, prisoners, man suddenly together, perhaps for only one brief night."

knew other Americans were nearby. He had heard, on two occasions, a man's far-off whistling of "The High and the Mighty."

Drosky was silting on his wooden cot, meditating, when the first American he had seen in nearly a year was pushed into the small cell. He looked like a dirty wet rag.

The two men stared at each other

It was the longest moment that Drosky had ever lived. Longer than all the solitary confinement Longer because recogn zable human to sah was onwar arms reach away.

The two prischers moved slowly toward each other unable to speak

Drosky knew only that with one second more without some touch in the middle of all this lanely hell, with the warmth of another human so close, after so long, he would crack and snap torever

The other prisoner was some shadow of his former husky self, but his eyes, storing unbelievably at Drosky, burned bright as coals. He had thought this new cell would be as empty as all the other cages in which he had been kept.

Drosky reached out to shake the man's hand. Their firm grips seemed some long-unused gesture, from a world a million miles away. The man reached for Drosky's arm. The two prisoners, complete strangers, pulled themselves close into one another's bodies. They hugged and held and cried and patted with an understanding born of their long solitary imprisonment.

They touched in ways unspoken in ways that only men who have endured long torment can comfort one another. They tay together in a way to soothe deep wounds that the wives they knew they'd never see again could never have been able to understand and reach

They were complete strangers, but they were soldiers, prisoners, men suddenly together, perhaps for only one brief night. They were men starring for human affection, tenderly exchanging all the grinding, weeping, hugging, laughing consolation they could give one another.

"The war." The man whispered in the last chill before dawn "The war," he whispered soft y into Drosky's ear, "Is over," He touched Drosky's startled face, and soothed him back down, holding him on the cot

"Home!" Drosky's voice was hoorse

he knew Drosky had built up crumble. He would need them all He told Drosky how nearly eight hundred POWs had been repatrated some months before. "We tost," the man said, "We evacuated Nam with honor They told me that when I was held up in Honoi, and they laughed. Some honor. We surrendered. I think we surrendered. They sent most of us back. They said they sent all of us back."

"O my deat sweet Jesus Shit," Drosky sold, "we're bargaining chips "

"They're going to fuck with us until they're tired of fucking with us."

In the hot July, depressed, Drosky and his cellmate tost all appetite. They were shackled to the bunks in Iron ankle stocks and beaten more frequently. The uneaten food was collected by the Vielnamese to feed the pigs raised on the prison grounds. Drosky was no way ready to help the enemy.

He dumped their uneaten rice into the slopbucket they shared

The guards usually steered clear of the loosely lidded slop cans, but new guards had replaced the old. They needed to make their impression. They were harder less lax in discipline. They had been schooled to bring the Americans to their knees. The regime had finally revealed their plans to use the shadow prisoners they had denied, and would continue to deny, had ever existed.

The new guards hauled Drosky from his cell for the first time in months for interrogation. They accused him of yet another crime against the Vietnamese people, he had thrown away his uneaten ration of food into the cert stop can for an hour they beat him, and then with his cellmate surrounded by guards carrying a dozen stop buckets, Drosky was marched to the sharlow mudwallow where the cans were daily empired.

A new guard, so young he was victous in the enjoyment he savored in the bealings he gave, handed Drosky a bamboo screen it street no was a control Proservand his ce Imate were to

MONEY OF THE PARTY OF MONTH THE TO THE LEE CONTRACTOR 10 use the sifter in the mudwa low to reclaim the rice Drosky had thrown away The young guard drove them into the wallow with a rubber truncheon

Ca f-deep in the same and mud and filth, the two prisoners were forced to kneel. The guard, in heavy rubber boots, waded in behind them. With both hands on a bamboo stick, he forced Drosky's ce Imate's head toward the bobbing surface of the pit

For long seconds, Drosky feared they were going to make them eat the stuff. Negative, Drosky thought, I'll die first. But the guard pulled back. He knew other plans existed for keeping these Americans as prizes of war Their skill with weaponry and English was to be used sometime; no one knew when; and they were more valuable alive than dead. And alive, there were vast periods of long-nights of vengeance, of long chances to discipline and humiliate and break them to be tractable to the needs of the new post-war regime.

The guards kept them on their knees sifting the rice from the muck for hours. Both men were exhausted from the screening. Drosky had to hold his ce Imate's head up from the samey

Surface

The young guard laughed, and said something, which Drosky interpreted about how the two Americans at night lay together The guard spit at them, and ordered the soldiers to remove them from the mess pool

They were hosed down. Drosky's cellmate was locked into bone-billing forture cuffs behind his back, and his feet were secured in metal stocks at the foot of his cot. Drosky, who was not secured in the cell, had to help him with his pajama trousers when he had to use the bucket. Drosky had to wash and clean him

Bound hand and foot for weeks, the man asked Drosky to be tender to him, to touch him, to lie upon him for warmth Drosky was no longer surprised at his own feelings. He no longer cared what anyone would think. No one who counted would ever know how relieving was his contact with the bound flier whose anily relief was in Drosky Finally, Drosky no langer even started the night sleeping on his own cot. He found a way to curl in next to his bound companion.

The new guards wake the two men late one night, and beat them both

Drosky was a ubbed senseless in the corner of the ceil, watching his triend, still bound to the cot, being beaten with rubber fruncheons and bamboo sticks. Drosky remembered seeing the thrashing man's nose flatten, turn sideways, break, and gush blood, "I love you, man!" That was the last Drosky saw of his cellmate

When he regained consciousness, he was alone again in solltary confinement. In the slow grind of months, Drosky picked up enough with his pidgin vocabulary to learn of other Americans shot down years before over the Ho Chi Minh Irail. They were being transferred slowly, in great secrecy, from Laos and Cambodia, to Hanol

The new regime was expert in re-educating the filers. Some caved in under extreme torture. Some cooperated out of sheer boredom after years of solitary confinement. The Communists needed the Americans they had shadowboxed away. The US fliers were needed to train a new wave of young VC froops how to repair and fly the planes and choppers abandoned years before in the hasty retreats from Vietnam. Laos, and Cambodia

They teased Drosky with newspaper clippings. He grew sick at the mention of the term MIA. He wasn't missing in action. He was a prisoner of a war he was still fighting, of a war that was long over as far as the world was concerned. But not for Drosky. As long as he was held captive, he vowed to resist as long as he had strength and life.

No one, he knew in his heart of hearts, was really, truly trying to negotiate for the M As about whom Hanoi c-aimed to know nothing he could hear the other American prisoners voices muffled, in faraway cells. He rearned to tap a code on metal pipes that brought coded messages back. For some, there were small brutarizations in the cages, on the spot Others were taken off to full scale forture sessions. Men were disappearing from their solitary cages. Drosky knew that some of the disappeared were aiready leaching in classrooms. Those who refused were murdered.

Drosky needed to survive in every way he could be filipped the bird. He hated the enemy He hated them when they finally decided it was his time for higher education. He hated them

"Droshy was clubbed senseless in the compret the call, watching his friend, still bound to the cot, being beatin with rubber frunchaens and bamboo s'ichs. Dios'ty remembered sering the thrashing man's note break and guen bleed. 'I love you, man!' That was the last Drosky saw of his cellmate."

as they broke into his cell, surrounded him, and dangled the coils of torture ropes before his face

He was determined

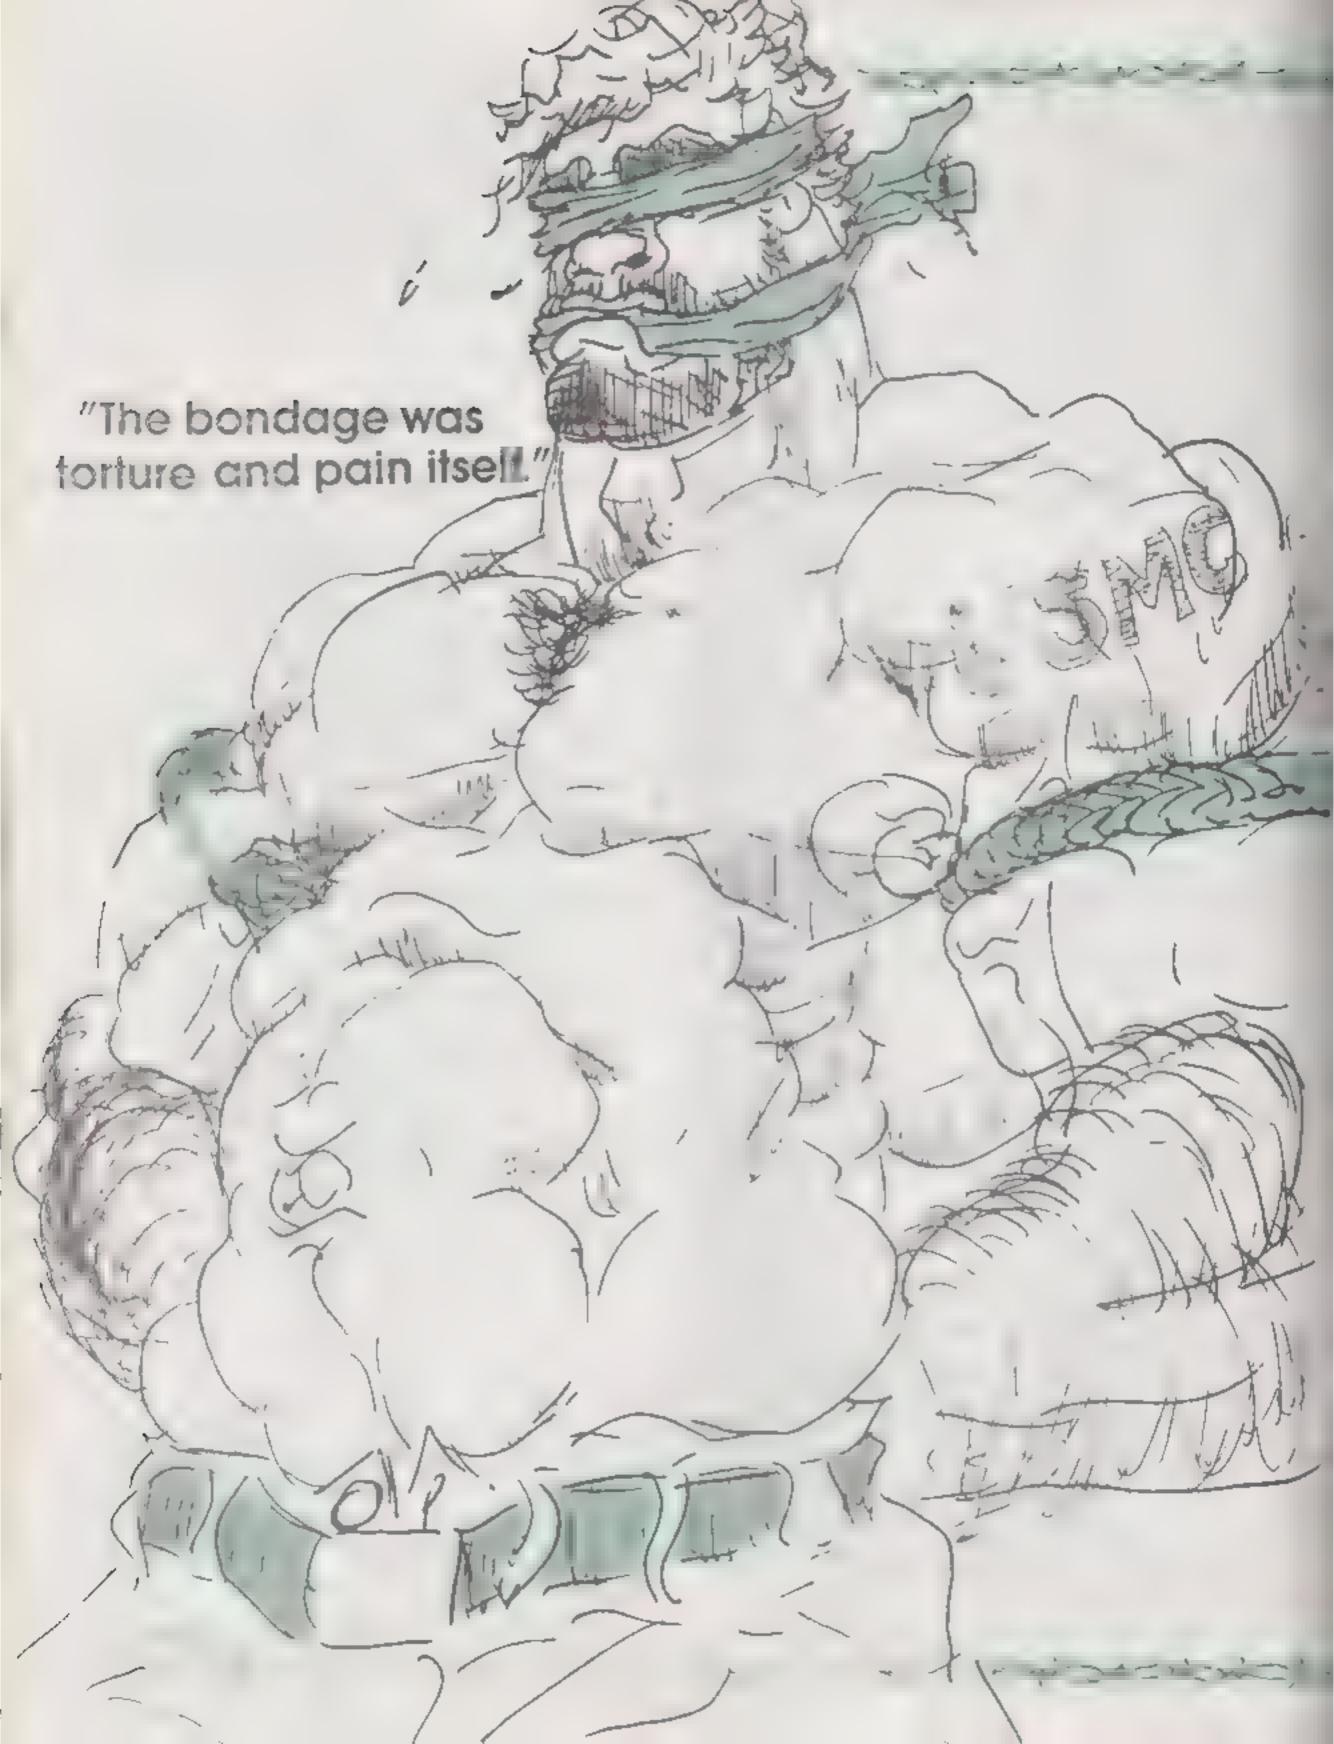

They were determined

They would make him of use to them, or they would kill

Finally it had come to shift or get off the pot

Drosky felt a thrill of fear.

In the boredom of interminable solitary confinement, he had a most begun to welcome the rough touches of the guards They pulled Drosky's arms behind him tying his wrists together. He was blindfolded, and his shorts were ripped off. exposing his buttocks balls and druk. Theig aids punched his gut and kicked at his ass and shoulders. One kneed his nuts and sent Drosky spraw it gita the floor scraping his lace. He rolled on his side. Winded, he felt hands binding his ankles fightly together with coarse rope. They rolled him onto his belly. The guards took the long torture ropes, cut to precise lengths, and fied light haif-hitches up Drosky's left arm from wrist to shoulder. As each loop was strung, a guard stood on Drosky's arm, and pulled the rope fight into his lean muscular flesh Again the rope was wrapped a few more inches up Drosky's arm and ted into a new half high Every several hitches the guards stopped and stapped Drosky's forearm and biceps like some sorami to be coil-wrapped as tight as possible

Then the guards half-hitched Drosky's other arm

The bondage was forture and pain itself

Three guards pulled Drosky's separalely bound arms together behind his back, and field his field arms together passing ropes even tighter around on top of the first bindings wrapping them exclulialingly together wrists forearms elbows as touching and the i, with their booted feet standing on his aims, they cinched hight against each other his upper arms, all the way from his elbows up to his broad shoulders, until his shoulders were nearly touching Drosky felt both shoulders begin to pull out of the sockets. He was in total pain but its center was in his chest which strained out from the lension of the ropes puting his shoulders. back above his bound arms. His arms had already lost all feeling. They were swelling, deadly gray, and cold

Then he felt their hands tying his legs in tight half-hitches from his ankles up to his knees

Drosky thought this torture-bondage was the worst he had ever suffered

Until he felt them raise up his torso

Until he felt them to se his tight y trussed arms by the wrists up, backwards up his back, and above his head

Until he left the guard's knee forcing his back forward until he fell the knee's pressure on his back forcing his face down past his dick and balls until his nose was between his knees and his blindleided eyes were squashed against his legs,

Unt, he felt the hands pulling his dislocating arms by his wrists back up over his bowed drawn head tying his wrists pointing straight up from his shoulders to a rope that stretched tout forward and down to his bound ankles.

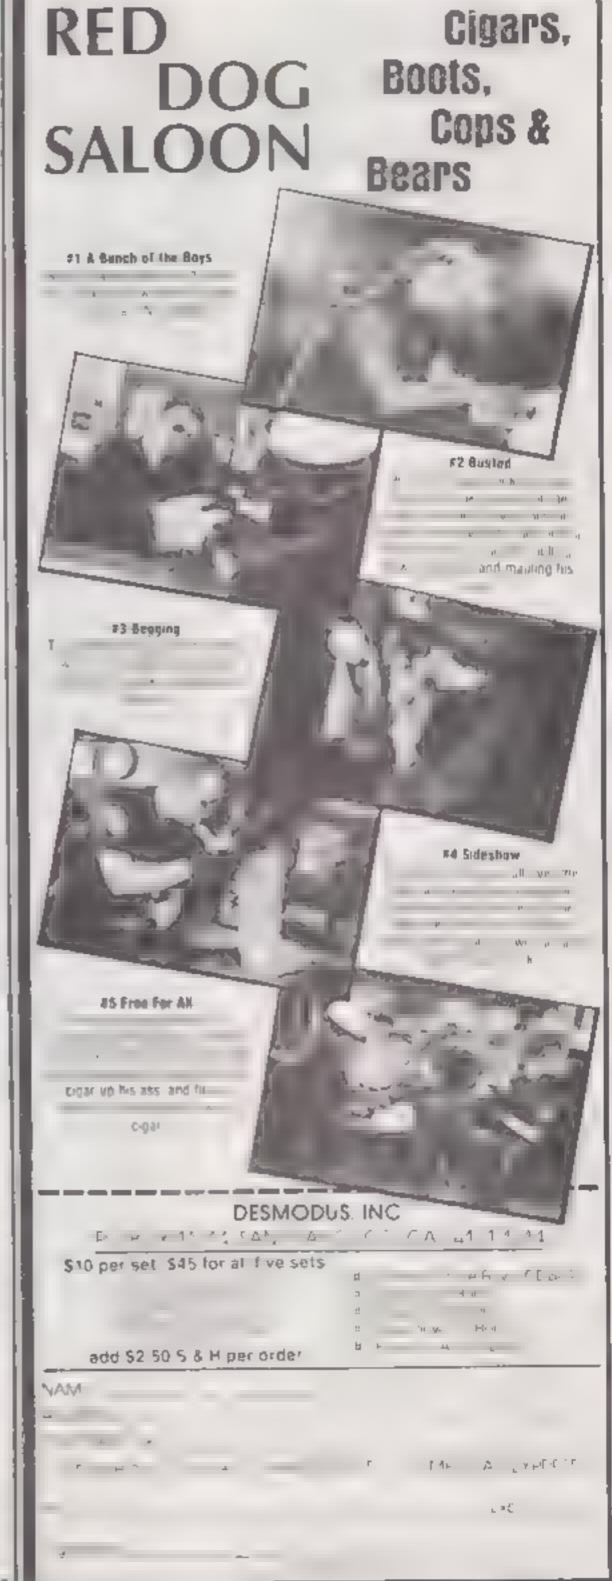

Until in the room with the piss scaked floor there was only his screaming, his mouth muffled against his own naked thighs.

Drosky concentrated against their vengeance. . . to give no information or take part in any action which might be harmful to my comrades. Their knees and hands bent him experty to continue to resist by at means possible knowing in their long experience with torture to make no ara or written statement a slaya to my country that they were too vengeful to let him escape by dying to give only name rank service number and date of birth knowing he cau diany stand so much immobile suffocating wrenching spasming pain. that I om an American fighting man., one word in the shadow of this kirling pain responsible for my actions that nat this torture one word from him one word

Most often. Luse this space to talk about issues related to SM Leather relationships. This time, I want to go over some ideas about your relationship with your Self It's important because, after all, YOU are your only constant companion.

Besides, developing a healthy relation ship with all the parts of yourself places you in a better position to have healthy relationships with others. Most of all, Lam concerned that many of us have painful relationships with our sexual selves—let me expain

When SM and Leather themes first began to emerge from the mists of my own achtescent horniness, I was scared by them. As I began to discover the world of leathermen, I test both excited by it and worried about mysett. If I were to explore my real desires, I teared that I would some how be destroyed by them.

I can remember the vague dread that there might be some hidden point past which could never return to the vanish world. I would be swept away into some litestyle that I could not control. It was awful. It was made worse by the fact that I could tell no one about these inclinations or the fears that went with them. I was excited scared and solated. The world of SM. Leather was like an accordent. I couldn't look at it, and is couldn't look away either.

My experience is not unique, I know that there are many people who also tee trapped somewhere between their desire or this sexuality and their tear of it.

By now, I have had the chance both to and out of the therapy room to spend time exploring the issues that surround people's cars about the SM scene. Several general themes have emerged.

First and foremost, it seems that many guys with SM, teather interests are loaded with SHAME about having them. The shame may come from the beket that it is wrong to enjoy yourself too much, or to be fou much different from everyone else. It may also come from the notion that there may be something evil or Satanta about SM. Leather sexual ty. Some feel that it is shameful to do sexual things with equipment—people are oik. Tobjects are not Our recognition that we are "perverts caries with it the feeling that we have marte a shameful mistake in our lives that we must now hide

American society places high value or innocence for some reason, other societies value experience, ours does not. Therefore anyone who knows too much about sex is considered sleazy and thus not desirable. So we grow up with the understanding that it is old to know about sucktuck but not much more. Other men fear that just thinking about SM-Leather sex will mark them somehow and others will know they are sleazy—the secret will be out.

As males, many of us are following an old straight script that says well-e better to settle down with a virgin for a close as we can get AFTER we have sown our "wild oats". Some guys go out and get lots or sexual experience and then must down play it so our potential partner is not scared by our "wild" past.

Some make it oik for themselves to have had their "wild" past by feeling SHAME about it now "It siall in the past of amiliar a virgin again" (8)

Social rules say that straight is better than gay. The rules also say that vanilla is better than kinky. So there is hiding, And a part of us is cut off from ourselves.

WHEN WE REJECT A NATURAL PART OF OURSELVES, WE DAMAGE OUR SELF CONCEPT AND OUR CONFIDENCE IN OUR ABILITY TO HAVE HAPPY RELA TIONSHIPS IS UNDERMINED

American social pressure to conform is strong. Officially, we are proud of our melting pot" image. Our actual behavior as a nation, however reveals that we do not tolerate diversity. So there is a strong inclination to hide our differentness, to other cases, the individual who is different may wish to have his "uniqueness removed. So therapists hear, "I am gay, can you make me straight?", or "I am kinky, can you make me 'normal?"

SOCIETY, THROUGH OUR PARENTS SES SHAME TO PRESSURE US INTO BEING for wanting to be; JUST LIKE EVERYBODY ELSE

Most often, the shame that we feel over our differentness is really just an internal reflection of social values that come from outside in other words, we feel shame because we think we are supposed to feel it. But it does not belong to us. It is what THEY want us to fee.

THE FREEDOM TO BE DIFFERENT AND FEEL O'K ABOUT IT MUST BE FOUGHT FOR

Another lear that plagues us as we come out into the SM Leather world is the fear that we are going to be harmed by pursuing these desires. Often we tear physical harm but many also tear some undefined psychological or spiritual harm—this was my biggest concern when I was 19 and just at the edge of this stuff.

Fortunately, no one aed to me then by by yourself, you are doing if the hard way an occid. There are now over 200 organizations available to the plyou and teach you in this country and half that number overseas. We now have numerous publications that provide a wealth of information that was not available 20 years ago.

For these of you who leef called to this sexuality, the worst thing you can do is a major isolated in your own fear and shame. The accidents that do happen in the Science usually happen to loners who can't or won't connect to a support system or network of like minded tolks for go'd-ance and fellowship. There is now a tribe of Leathertolik and it cuts across the lines of gay straight maje/female, rich poor, o'd young. If you waste the tribe's resources of dealing with the shame and fear, you will just hurt and hide longer is that really what you want to do with your time?

Leather Weekend 1989

by Vern Stewart

Nearly a thousand men and women were on hand in Washington, DC the weekend of January 13-15, 1989 to wit ness the selection of Dan Noel as Mr. Mid. Atlantic Leather, Thirteen hot men yied for the title. A panel of judges including IML MIKE PEREYRA, MITCH DAV S, M.A.L. 88 MICHEL ROUSSE, M.A.L. 87, LOUIS BOTHWELL, M.A.L. 86, and VERN STEW-ART, COLUMNIST, did not have an easy. task of selecting this year's winner. First runnerup title went to Glen Corsini of Arrington, Virginia. The second runnerup spot was captured by George Roscoe of Cieveland, Ohio. Contestants ranged from as far away as Los Angeles, Dallas and Montreal, The Weekend got underway Friday evening with the introduction of the judges at the DC Eagle. So many hot men all under one roof made cruising a nearmpossibility. However this observer witnessed phone numbers and addresses being written on any available scrap of paper

Saturday morning brought even more guests to the DC Eagle's delicious break tast. Meanwhite at Tracks (site of the contest,) the preliminary judging got underway fracks is the perfect site for the contest due to the size and the space. Not to mention the superb staff that worked to make everything run smoothly.

The Centaur MC, sponsors of Leather Weekend, must be commended for a flaw-less weekend. Outgoing President, Hugh Gage, and incoming President, John Rocco, and all the members of the club both in front of and behind the scenes made it obvious to all who attended that love, togetherness, and the brotherhood of leather is what it is all about. The Mid Atlantic Leather contest, celebrating its 6th anniversary, has become as popular an event as international Mr. Leather, held in Chicago, and the Mr. Drummer contest held in San Francisco each year

28-year-old Dan Noel, this year's winner, is also a founding member of the newest blue club, "COMMAND," which was among the over thirty clubs represented at Leather Weekend. Mr. Drummer Ron Zehel, was on hand to meet, greet, and witness the event, and was an instant bit with the crowd. IML Mike Pereyra won the hearts of all the men and women with his charm, poise, good looks, and his about to address the issues contropting all reatherpeople coast to coast.

Leather cocktails, Saturday evening, with an array of food fit for a king, made a be lever of any first-timer that this was truly a premier event. Weekend contest chairman, Al Santora, put the contestants and the audience at ease immediately with his quick wit and easy style while emceeing the event

Entertainment provided by an east coast favorite, "Leatherella," had the crowd in stitches. The Leather Fashion Show put on by the Leather Rack created guite a stir-However, the Bondage show complete with electric prod, chains, and wires con nected to the "boy's" cockring, sent many in the audience into ecstasy wishing they could trade places. All eyes were riveted to the stage in the 5. M Leather Store John Rocco Production. To all of you who have been procrastinating on attending the Centauts MC Leather Weekend, start making plans to attend next year's event being held. lanuary 12 -14, 1990. LEATHER NOTEBOOK

Dear Mr. Townsend,

I've recently found myself in an awkward situation involving my 18-year-old son, who has lived with his mother since he was 6 but staved with me one weekend per month. I've suspected for some time. that he was gay, because his mother has spoiled him rotten and he has always been a sissy. A though I have tried to be firm with him, I haven't whipped his ass since. puberty, because nothing makes me hotter than busting ass. A month ago, on his 18th. birthday, his mother called to "warn" methat he had told her he was gay, and that he indicated that he was also going to tell. me. Arout a week later he came to stay with me for five days, but said nothing. He then returned to codege, leaving a note for me on his pallow, marked "Daddy.

The test thing I saw was a photo of him shaved and wearing pink panties with little white hearts all over them. The letter in brief said "Daddy, I ve written this toil you," and a second envelope contained a first person story; "I knew I was a pussy my Daddy caught me wearing my panties and beat my assifurit, made me lick his boots lete." I don't know how he had pit ked up on my own tetish, because in truth the whole thing got me so hot I damn near shot without touching my dark. I've used the boy's letter and photo for daily IO sessions over since.

Now, he's coming home from college in a few weeks, and i don't know what to do Am I suk, crazy, or what? How do I handle the situation? This isn't something I can write to Dear Abby about. Appreciatively, Daddy in Distress, No.

Dear Daddy.

I suppose it's the moral aspect of the situation that bothers you, and this is a question I really can't answer for another person. If establishing a physical relationship with your son is going to cause you such severe mental anguish that it outweighs the pleasure you derive from it. then you'll have to leave it alone. However, it's been my experience that the only sexual relationships I have ever regretted were the ones I let slip through my fingers. A few issues back I answered a letter from a son in the reverse perspective of your situation, and I told him to "go for it." I don't know how this worked out, but I'm really inclined to say the same thing to you. If you pass up the opportunity, I think you'll regret it for the rest of your days, because you'll never know how it might have been. There are lots of guys who'd give their left nut to be faced with your choice (or your son's,) and from my admittedly jaded perspective I don't see anything wrong with giving it a try as long as both of you are willing participants.

Dear Larry,

What is the best way to clean latex toys etc., and with what? What about enema equipment? I only use these items on myself, but I still want to be sure they are as clean and sate as possible. Is there a hactericidal solution of some kind avail able for this purpose? We never see this subject addressed, so please inform me.

K. H., Rochester NY

In this day of health consciousness t have seen this subject addressed many times. I don't know how you've missed it A diluted bleach solution, or plain rubbing alcohol is going to work just fine, although you should wash off the residue atterward to keep it from causing skin irritation. As for cleaning latex appliances that are only being used on one person, good old fashioned hot water and soap does wonders. If you'd feel better using a product with a "medical" label, there are lots of them: spray disinfectants like Amphyl or Asepto. or sterilizing solutions like Glutarex or Cidec. But it is going to be harder to find these, since they are generally sold directly to doctors and hospitals by medical supply houses.

Sitt

When I suck a Topman to orgasm and he shoots his load into my mouth, it's thrilling for both of us. But unless I swallow his cum, my effort to give him a good. toving blow job seems pointless. To make him withdraw his cock from my mouth. before he shoots off, or to spit out his cum. turns what should be a theiling mutual encounter into something incomplete, disappointing, unsatisfying. It's like leaving a good play before the last act. But I'm attaid of contracting AIDS from swallowing cum-How concerned should I really be about this? Won't stomach acid destroy any virus that might be present in my Topman's cum? Also, I hear that a person can contract AIDS through a sore or abrasion in the mouth, but suppose that after taking my Topman's load I quickly rinsed out my mouth with a solution of hydrogen peroxide or some other antiseptic? Shouldn't that reduce the danger considerably? Isn't there any way to give head without major. risk to the bottom?

Concerned, Boca Raton FL

Dear Concerned.

Cocksucking, as opposed to ass fucking, is a relatively low risk activity. However, when you are dealing with a disease as deadly as AIDS, even a very low risk situation is placing your life on the line. If you have any kind of open sore in your mouth, there is no way to get an antiseptic solution in there fast enough to assure sterilization. If you insist on taking the risk, you can cut the odds a bit by following the ejaculation by an immediate rinse, gargle, and or swallow of yorka or whiskey. But this only decreases the risks it doesn't eliminate it. Swallowing the load seriously increases the danger, because the stomach acid is in the stomach, not in the esophagus. It's your lite: you have to decide, but you should treat any unknown partner as if he were HIV positive, You may not want to miss the last act, but if there's a fire backstage you'd better get your ass out of the theater.

Dear Sir.

chave been with my Master for eight years. We have had a very good and honest relationship. My Master is into very heavy cock and ball torture, which clove and am able to take during long sessions in the playroom ram very well hung, with large balls and a long, thick cock. We are both professional men and hold good jobs. Every morning before we leave for work my Master puts a harness on my cock and balls. Which is very tight because of my huge size if am expected to wear this harness all day, but because of its being so Eight i remove it as soon as i am at work. and replace it just before i leave for home. My Muster believes I wear it all day. because He put it on me and ordered me to wear it it don't like this lie between us and don't know how to tell Him the truth I don't want to endanger a great eight year relationship, but i'm atraid i li do myself. some serious, permanent damage if i obey. Please help me i know he will listen to your advice. We get Drummer. Thank you, slave tim

Dear slave,

Your Master is certainly going to be justified in punishing you for your disobedience, but he should also be responsive to the possibility of doing you some physical damage. In his boots, I'd whip your assuntil it glowed, but I'd buy you a bigger harness.

If you would like to have Larry Townsend address a particular problem or issue, you can write him c/o Leather Notebook, Drummer, PO Box 11314, San Francisco, CA 94101-1314.

NOW YOU HAVE TWO REASONS TO BUY WITH MEN

You probably don't need the VITA-MEN formula if you are not a male, 21 years of age or older Or if you are and you consume a per fect diet daily, with little or no junk food, consume no accohol nor smoke, keep regular hours and there is little or no stress in your life.

And if your idyllic life includes no exposure to whatever it is that causes colds and flu, along with many of the other communicable diseases that plague mank nd

Now, we certainly are not claiming that VITA-MEN or IMMUNITABS will make you immune to all the things that are going around, but considering what is going around, we honestly feel that your chances are considerably better if your body is operating with its immune system on battle-stations a ert

There are a great many reasons for preferring VITA MEN products to the run of the mill drug store variety. Or even most of the mega-formula brands with something for everyone

If you are a young man, aged 21 to whatever, after cleaning up your act, may we suggest you perfect your diet. You are whatever goes inside you. And VITA-MEN was designed by dedicated doctors to do Just that, buddy.

DRUMMER 127 96

and flashed his military ID. Little did the cops or Ron know then that what Ron would later do in pioneering the gay take-over of the Castro outpost with his cozy Jaguar backroom maze.

Gayola, Ron said, was exposed by pioneer gay mover-and-shaker publisher Bob Damron, who refused to pay off. Apparently the new homomasculine crowd wasn't cowed by cop buils who were hardly a match for the new homomachismo which was the initial seed of militant gay politics in San Francisco. The legendary Damron singlehandedly stonewalled the cops long before New York's 1969 Stonewall Bar revolution.

As a fuck-you-pig result, the SFPD suffered a minor scandal in the papers, and then for some years continued to be more discreet with their alleged payoffs at the fluff bars. San Francisco, despite Gayola, has never suffered as has LA with the kind of continual police harassment that drove Drummer-founder John Embry from LA to SF because of his charitable fundraiser "Slave Auction" which fascist LAPD Chief Ed Davis raided because he thought it was real!

It was the same benighted Chief Davis's boys-in-blue who arrested S/M-leather performance-artist Robert Opel, during the 70's craze of "streaking," for appearing nude at an LA City Council meeting! As a note of distinct clarification, Robert Opel is not to be confused historically with premiere American society photographer Robert Mapplethorpe, whose "Biker-for-Hire" graced the now-classic cover of Drummer 24. Somehow, the similarities of both artists' names and fames created a "person" the confused called "Robert Opel-thorpe," Go figure!

Robert Opel, having become a refugee from Ed Davis' LA, opened the first leather art gallery, Fey Way, on Mission Street, South of Market. S/M graphics and sculpture found a real home with spectacular "openings" where leather ladies and gents showed up for the drawings of artists the likes of Tom Hinde, Tom of Finland, and Chuck Arnett.

Unfortunately Robert Opel was murdered in his SOMA gallery in 1979. A premier leather-performance artist, Opel, who once enacted "The Murder of Dan White" in Civic Center Plaza, was the Most Naked Man in the World," having streaked in front of a billion people worldwide, live on the Oscars, leaving Liz Tayior's chins slackjawed, and making David Niven an instant, albert inaccurate, wit, who jibed that Opel, naked, didn't "have much to show."

Wrong!

"It wasn't," Robert Opel told me, "streaking naked in front of a billion people that scared me. While I was hiding in the scenery, I was tangled up in about a thousand high-voltage wires."

A metaphor of all gay people is revealed in his statement: what has the media done, or will the media do, to electrify or electrocute our image and our history unless we, as in this Drummer column, set the story, names, and dates—you should pardon the expression—straight? Drummer is, besides what it appears to be, the one lone publishing voice speaking out politically in fiction and features for the sub-sub-culture of the international leather community.

BOY'S CLUBHOUSE TO MEN'S BIKE CLUBS

Interviews with senior gay men confirm that the "new" crowd in Jack's and the Black Cat was almost a spontaneous combustion of sexual heat, all dressed up in leather with no place to go. The owners greeted the change, and the Black Cat, particularly, was well on its way to inventing the archetypal homomasculine sex-bar style that grew to full flourish later in pubepubs like the one- and-only Tool Box.

Other bars followed suit: Febe's, the Wagon Wheel, the Red Star Saloon, the Folsom Prison, the Ambush, and the Brig, which, in its founding incarnation as the No Name (homebase for the most exclusive of sub-clubs, The Rainbow MC,) was the most sophisticated performance-art sleaze-pit of its day in the High 70's. The No Name was a full-tilt-boogie Orgy Pit from the front door to the back toilet and was the first leather bar to 86 the jukebox for specially recorded acid-fuck tapes. Yet the Tool Box remains the prototype against which later evolving bars measured their authenticity.

Gay men's best invention has always been themselves and their sexuallycharged environments and art: bars and baths, books, graphics, and high-flying sexacts performed without nets.

Tune in next issue. The first Bike Clubs and Runs, Will there be trouble in Paradise?

-- Researched by Ron Johnson and Jack Fritscher

(Editor's Note: Next issue, check out this "Rear View Mirror" to pick up our S/M SOMA "International Leather History" with the founding of the Bike Clubs and tales of the legendary Tool Box. As Drummer collects the history of international leather, WE NEED YOU for factual accuracy, dates, anecdotes, and photos! Fritscher and Johnson are collecting our oral history from men and women who lived it.

If you have a story to tell, a fact to add (or correct,) photos to share about bars, early bike runs, bike clubs, S/M scenes, the first leather, whatever, send a note to Rear View Mirror, c/o Drummer, PO Box 11314, San Francisco, CA 94131-1314. We'll contact you, and your story can become part of Drummer's International Leather History!)
